BOTANISTS WILL HELP BEAUTIFY

Post-Dispatch Plan for Improvement Favored.

SCHOOLS WILL LEND A HAND

PRIZES FOR FLOWER GARDENS SURE TO ATTRACT.

Co-Operation of Botanical Society in Efforts to Make St. Louis an Earthly Paradise Is Assured by Formal Resolution.

POST-DISPATCH PLAN APPROVED.

At a meeting of the Engelman Botanical Society Monday night at the High School, the plans of the Post-Dispatch to interest the school children in the work of civic improvement was discussed, and the following resolution presented by W. J. Stevens, principal of the Pope School, was accepted by the society:

"Resolved, That the Engelman Botanical Society hereby expresses its approval of the efforts of the Post-Dispatch in developing a spirt favoring civic improvement, and hereby pledges its co-operation and assistance in these efforts."

The Post-Dispatch plan is to interest the children of St. Louis in civic improvement. To do this the Post-Dispatch has offered a series of prizes to be competed for by the school children of St. Louis, under 16 years of age, for the best essays on the subject: "How can a boy or girl best contribute, by home work, to beautify St. Louis?" The subject of these essays will be chiefly the beautifying the home surroundings by the cultivation of the lawn, flowers, trees, shrubs and vines. No essay must exceed three hundred words in length.

There are three prizes of $20, $10 and $5 each, in gold, for the three best essays from all the schools, sent to the Sunday Post-Dispatch, and a prize of $1 for the best essay of those contributed by the children of each school.

This means that any child who competes may win a $20 prize for the best essay in the entire competition, besides a special prize of $1 for the best essay of those sent in from his or her school.

This is the theoretical side of the question. But there is a practical side. Not every child in St. Louis under 16 years of age may enter this contest and work. The Post-Dispatch desires the children to carry out their ideas in such way that St. Louis will be made a beautiful city.

$10 Gold Prize for Most Beautiful Garden.

The child, under 16 years of age, who can show the most beautiful yard or garden, front or rear, all his or her own work, can win a prize of $20 in gold. For the next best $10 in gold is offered. And for the third best $5 in gold. Any child under the age limit may enter the contest for beautifying their home surroundings and St. Louis.

After hearing the proposed work of the Post-Dispatch the Engelmann Society heartily approved of the plan and appointed the tree committee of the society, which is composed of Dr. John Green, H. C. Irish, W. J. Stevens, Miss A. Isabel Mulford and Prof. von Schrenk, to co-operate with the Post-Dispatch in its efforts to create a public spirit for civic improvement. As the time in which to prepare for work is so short, the committee was given full power to act upon all subjects pertaining to the work of civic improvement.

This committee will confer with the Post-Dispatch next Wednesday and a definite plan will be formed.

The society indorsed the plan of the Post-Dispatch to devote a column on the editorial page giving competent and explicit instructions on pruning, planting and all matters relating to plant life and plant growing. Questions pertaining to planting and growing will be answered in this column.

The question of whether the city or the property holder owned the strip of grass and the trees planted between the sidewalk and the street was brought up. And as to whether something could not be done whereby the grass and trees in such places could not be protected. This matter was taken under advisement and will be dealt with in the near future.

Mr. J. B. Dandeno gave an interesting but somewhat technical talk on "Freezing as Related to Plant Growth."

The herbarium committee of the society will meet at the Mary Institute March 22 for the purpose of mounting the society's specimens, which number 500.

Board of Education Will Co-Operate.

Dear Sirs: I will gladly assist you in the contest spoken of in your letter of March 8.

Respectefully,
E. S. WILLIAMS,
Principal.

SCHINDLER IS IMPROVING

Attempt to Lead Orchestra While Suffering From Concussion of the Brain Responsible for Illness.

Paul Schindler, musical director of "The Messenger Boy" company, is gradually improving at the Rebkah hospital, Grand avenue and Caroline street, and Dr. Joseph L. Boehm, the attending physician, thinks he will be able to resume his duties in a few days.

An attempt to direct the difficult orchestral and vocal music at the opening performance at the Olympic Sunday night, while suffering from concussion of the brain, is responsible for Mr. Schindler's presence in the hospital.

While en route from Chicago to St. Louis Tuesday night it appears M. Schindler met with an unusual accident. A chandelier, which was loosely fastened to the ceiling of a Pullman sleeper, fell as he was passing through the car, striking him on the head.

He was taken to the Planters' and Sunday afternoon Dr. Boehm was summoned. He advised Schindler not to attempt to direct the orchestra Sunday night. Schindler, in his anxiety to have the Olympic orchestra in conversant with the music that was to be new to them caused him to attempt the feat anyhow. He did direct the orchestra through the first act, but then swooned away.

MURRELL TRIAL IS CONTINUED

FEARS NERVOUS PROSTRATION

JUDGE T. B. HARVEY WITHDRAWS FROM THE DEFENSE.

Other Attorneys for Murrell Were Not Sufficiently Acquainted With Details to Go On.

Judge Douglas announced at noon that he would continue the trial of John K. Murrell until next Tuesday and Attorney Thomas B. Harvey, Murrell's chief counsel, announced his withdrawal from the case, stating that he was ill with nervous prostration and his doctor had ordered him to take a fortnight's rest out of the city.

The court did not grant the continuance upon the grounds presented by the defendant's counsel Monday, the absence of Ellis Wainwright and William B. Tamblyn, whom the defense claims as important witnesses. The continuance was granted, the court pointed out, because of an affidavit filed by Attorney Harvey, pleading his own illness.

Circuit Attorney Folk told the court that Murrell still had able counsel, mentioning Attorneys John A. Gernes and Thomas J. Rowe.

Murrell filed an affidavit to the effect that he had employed Gernez only March 1, and Rowe not until March 9, and that the lawyers were not thoroughly acquainted with the case.

The attorneys filed similar affidavits. Mr. Folk argued the matter with them at length, but the court decided for the continuance, Judge Douglas stating that in his opinion, owing to the illness of the chief counsel, the defendant should have a little more time to prepare his case.

Judge Douglas took occasion to say, in overruling the motion made Monday for a continuance, that Tamblyn is a non-resident and he does not believe the defense is serious in stating that he is an important witness, and that Ellis Wainwright, being under indictment himself on a charge similar to that under which Murrell is to be tried, could not be a competent witness.

WIND DAMAGES OVER FIFTY HOUSES

Fierce Storm Sweeps Over Part of Omaha.

NO PERSON SERIOUSLY HURT

THE COLISEUM SUFFERED THE MOST INJURY.

The Storm Came Up Shortly After Midnight and Created Great Alarm in All Parts of the City.

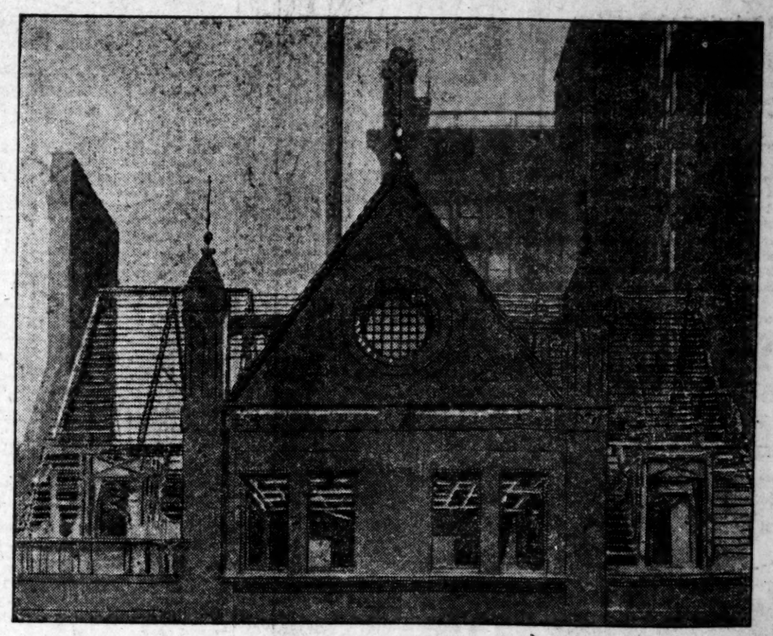

OMAHA, Neb., March 11.—Fully 50 buildings were damaged by a fierce storm that broke over the city after midnight. Cuming street, Eighteenth street to Twenty-fourth street and Twenty-fourth street north of Cuming were strewn with debris from damaged buildings, signs and fences. Nobody is thought to have been injured, but Bicycle Patrolman Dan Baldwin had a narrow escape. The storm struck him before he had dismounted and the force of the wind threw him heavily to the pavement, but he managed to get to a place of safety.

The Coliseum building is the worst wrecked of the larger structures. It was directly in the path of the storm. Nearly all of the skylights are gone and the roof is badly twisted. The high board fence surrounding the building was also carried away. Anderson's match factory, immediately east of the Coliseum, was badly wrecked and a row of five flats across the street were twisted and all the windows torn out.

Five large plate glass windows in Taggart's undertaking parlor, at 224 Cuming street, were blown out and the furniture and interior wrecked.

The storm created considerable excitement for a short time and aroused the entire population in the north part of the city, who thought the town was in the grasp of a real twister.

"BILLY" HOBBS EXPIRED TODAY

"Best Known Man in St. Louis" Died at 6 O'Clock.

GASTRITIS CAUSED HIS END

EXERTIONS OVER LINDSAY FUNERAL BROUGHT ON ATTACK.

Was Born in St. Louis June 4, 1854, and Was Newsboy, Reporter and Friend of Firemen—Election Commissioner Officially.

WILLIAM A. ("BILLY") HOBBS.
This picture of Mr. Hobbs, who, his friends assert, was personally known to more people in St. Louis than any other man, was taken a few days before Christmas. It reveals one of his characteristic expressions.

"Billy" Hobbs, "the best known man in St. Louis," is dead. He died of gastritis at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home, 4201 Cook avenue.

Officially he was William A. Hobbs, Republican member of the Board of Election Commissioners and proprietor of the Daily Hotel Reporter. To his friends, who were as numerous as those of any man in the city, he was "Billy," and, by this name only, was he spoken of by those who learned of his death Tuesday morning.

It is repeated that on last Friday Hobbs declared to a group of friends: "I haven't an enemy that I would walk across the street to get even with."

An attack of gastritis, induced, as members of his family believe, by his exertions in arranging for the funeral of his intimate friend, former Fire Chief John Lindsay, had kept Mr. Hobbs indoors since Saturday night. Monday afternoon his condition became serious.

At his bedside Monday night were his wife and three children, E. G. Clifford, Lrank L. Moe and Richard and John Lindsay, whose father, ex-Chief Lindsay, was buried Monday.

BUSY ALL OF SATURDAY.

All day Saturday Mr. Hobbs, who was to be one of the pallbearers at the Lindsay funeral, was engaged in making the arrangements. The death of the former fire chief, who was his closest friend, had affected him deeply, and he complained Saturday afternoon of feeling indisposed. He did not return to his home, however, until night, when he was seized with severe pains in the stomach, and sent for Dr. J. B. Pritchard.

Mr. Clifford, who was his assistant in the management of the Daily Hotel Reporter, says he believes the illness from which Mr. Hobbs died was brought on by his exertions on Saturday.

It was announced at the home that the funeral would be held Thursday afternoon from St. Ann's Church, Page avenue and Whittier street. The hour has not been determined.

Mrs. Hobbs, before her marriage, was Miss Barbara M. Mayer of St. Louis. Joseph McCullagh Hobbs, the son, is 19 years old, and is employed in a wholesale dry goods house. Two daughters, Catherine Laura and Helen, are public school pupils.

WAS NATIVE ST. LOUISAN.

Mr. Hobbs, who, his friends assert, was known personally to more St. Louisans than any other man in the city, was a native of St. Louis. His father, Benjamin R. Hobbs, came to St. Louis from Clark County, Ky. He was perhaps the first city weigher. Mrs. Hobbs was a Kennedy of Clark County. The Hobbs family and the Kennedys were of the best bluegrass strain. But family history does not always keep the cash flowing in. And so "Billy" Hobbs, after a few months in the Franklin and Jefferson schools, was forced to earn money for his own and the family support. He began selling papers. This brought him to the attention of J. B. McCullagh and William McKee of the Globe-Democrat.

C. B. Hubbell & Co. needed a cash boy. Hobbs got the job. Afterward he secured a position as a messenger boy for the Western Union. He learned telegraphy and was given the Southern Hotel telegraph desk. There he extended his acquaintance with J. B. McCullagh, and became acquainted with several reporters. He began to look out for possible "stories," as the news items in the papers are called. Then he got work in the old St. Louis Democrat from 4 to 12 o'clock helping to take special telegrams. That brought him nearer to the newspaper business. He held on to his day job at the Southern and worked until 12 o'clock a night as a reporter on the Democrat. In 1873 he quit the telegraph desk and went to the Democrat permanently. He went to the Globe soon, and when the papers were consolidated, remained on the staff of the Globe-Democrat, which became con-

ST. LOUIS' PHOTO FROM A BALLOON

AERONAUT LAWRENCE TO TAKE PICTURE OF THIS CITY.

PLATE TO COST NEARLY $200

Chicagoan Wants to Make Several Aerial Views of the World's Fair.

George G. Lawrence of Chicago, the noted balloon photographer, is in St. Louis preparing to take a photograph of the city from a balloon half a mile up for World's Fair advertising purposes. He has been visiting Photographer J. C. Strauss.

Mr. Lawrence probably is the only man who ever carried a camera above the clouds and took pictures of the top surface of a thundercloud, streaked with lightning.

His daring and skill as an aeronaut are widely known.

Mr. Lawrence is the man who rode a small board on a swift descent of 225 feet, without balloon attachment, landing safe and sound. This was on June 30 last, when the photographer made an ascension at the Armour company plant in Chicago.

An engineer told the balloonist that he could have descended a thousand feet with the same degree of safety, by holding each side as he did and balancing the platform, the atmospheric pressure being sufficient to keep the board from falling too rapidly.

In making gigantic flashlights Mr. Lawrence sometimes uses several pounds of flash powder. He has used as much as fourteen pounds. Sometime ago he used six pounds of powder and there was a premature explosion, which blew out the doors and windows and sent the photographer to bed for six weeks.

"It is not all easy sailing, this giant photography," said Mr. Lawrence to the Post-Dispatch, "but on the whole it is fine. Balloon-photography is particularly delightful. It is splendid to work so high up in the air. There is something exhilarating about it, and when one once gets the habit one is not likely to desert the calling."

The balloon picture of St. Louis Mr. Lawrence may take from the East Side, probably ascending from the Armour yards. He will ascend to the height of half a mile. A special plate will be used, made to order in St. Louis, costing nearly $200, being 4 feet 8 inches by 8 feet in size, and weighing 180 pounds.

"I may have to use several plates," says the photographer, "before getting a satisfactory picture. I hope to be able to get a good picture in ten days or so, but it may require two months, for I must pick my day.

"St. Louis, with its river curve, will make a very pretty picture from above. From half a mile up the city will resemble a flower garden, with its various hues showing. Horses look like dots, but they will show in the detail. Though they may be moving, they are so far away that their motion will not mar the photograph."

Mr. Lawrence uses a balloon of 40 feet diameter, filled with hydrogen gas. He may fill the balloon a dozen times before he gets the right kind of day to take the picture of St. Louis.

MOTHER GAVE UP DAUGHTER

Mrs. Mary Jennings Agreed to the Modification of a Divorce Decree Three Years Old.

After having lived for nearly four years under the stipulations of a divorce which gave the custody of both children to the mother, David F. Jennings and Mrs. Mary C. Jennings agreed in Judge Fisher's court Tuesday to a modification in the decree.

Under the terms of the new arrangement, Jennings is to take his daughter, Frances, to Chicago with him, and the other daughter, Caroline, is to remain with her mother.

Jennings agreed to pay for the support of his daughter, Caroline, who is to remain with her mother, $25 a month until Aug. 1, 1901, $20 a month from that date until Aug. 1, 1902, and one payment of $37 after the last date, after which the payments are to cease.

NEGRO VALET GETS $7000 BACK PAY

DECISION AGAINST BRADFORD ESTATE UPHELD BY COURT.

PHYSICIAN LEFT $400,000

Wyatt Ryans, Servant, Brought Suit and Won, but Case Went to Supreme Court.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

Watt Ryans of St. Louis got judgment in the Supreme Court at Jefferson City Tuesday morning for $7,600.83 against Richard Hospes and Boogher Blossom, executors of the will of Dr. Charles H. Bradford of this city who died a few years ago leaving an estate aggregating $400,000.

Ryans is a colored servant and nurse. He served the doctor as body servant during his old age and at his death at 78 years Ryans filed a bill with the executors for $8,103.33 compensation for his service, which extended over a period of twelve years. There did not seem to be any agreement between the old doctor and Ryans as to what he should receive for his work. The court finds that the evidence shows that Ryans served the old doctor faithfully as valet and nurse up to his death, and that the physician gave Ryans a few presents and money to defray his living expenses, but frequently said that when he was through with Ryans he would reward him handsomely.

The trial court in St. Louis gave Ryans judgment for $7,600.83 and Division No. 2 of the Supreme Court in an opinion by Judge Gantt affirmed that judgment.

OLD TRANSIT BOARD ELECTED

Re-Election of Murray Carleton as President Is Assured, With Net Earnings $2,085,198.99.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the St. Louis Transit Co. to elect a board of directors to serve for the ensuing year was held Tuesday morning in the company's office in the Security building.

At noon 112,591 shares out of a possible 172,623 had ben voted for the present board of directors, thus insuring the re-election of each member.

The directors are: A. H. Bauer, A. D. Brown, Patrick Calhoun, Murray Carleton, James Campbell, William H. Thompson, Eugene Delano, Charles D. McClure, F. E. Marshall, H. S. Priest and Corwin H. Spencer.

This action virtually insures the re-election of Murray Carleton as president of the transit company at the directors' meeting which will be held during the afternoon.

Transit common advanced $1.12½ cents at the morning session of the Stock Exchange or to $28 a share.

Preferred went from $83 to $84 per share.

The net earnings of the $80,000,000 corporation for the year past as shown by President Carleton's report amounted to $2,085,198.99.

TICKET SELLER WEDS MATRON.

Union Station Romance in Marriage of John Fitzgerald and Mrs. Deegan.

John Fitzgerald, a ticket seller at Union Station, and Mrs. Sallie Deegan, the matron in the second-class waiting room, were married Monday afternoon, surprising all their friends.

Mr. Fitzgerald secured a dispensation from Chancellor Van der Sanden to wed at St. Francis Xavier's church. Both bride and groom are Catholics, but they wished to marry outside of their parish, so that the surprise to their friends would be complete.

The groom lives at 1802 Papin street, and the bride, who was a pretty widow, has been living at 1806 Papin street. They became acquainted at the station, and as they lived only a block apart, it was easy sailing for love's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald are receiving congratulations from all the attaches of the Union Station.

TRACING FIFE ON NIGHT OF MURDER

Vital Portion of Time Not Accounted For.

DEFENSE MAY CLEAR THIS UP

TRACKS ABOUT RICHARDSON HOUSE EXPLAINED.

Miss Terhune, Who Passed the Residence After Richardson Was Killed Saw no Light and Heard no Outcry.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SAVANNAH, Mo., March 11.—The state resumed the tracing of Stuart Fife around the public square in the evidence today for his trial for the murder of Frank W. Richardson. By its witnesses the state has tracked the young man from the time he left his father's store at o'clock, up to 8 o'clock, when he left King's corner. From that timeu ntil after it was known that Richardson was killed, all tract of Fife is lost, so far as the state's evidence goes. The defense will try to acount for his actions during that time.

This morning Gale Vaught, former city marshal of Savannah, was called to the stand. He told of seeing Fife at 7:20 o'clock the night of the tragedy, and again at 10 o'clock.

The state called William B. Limerick, a druggist, who went to the Richardson house after the murder. He was among the first to discover that Richardson had not committed suicide. From all the state's witnesses it has been shown that the first report sent out was that Richardson had killed himself. The origin of the report has not been traced. Limerick identified the blood-stained overcoat worn by Richardson when he was killed. He said the coat was straight under the body as it lay in the couch room, with the head in the door.

BELLEVILLE ELECTION APRIL 1

H. J. Klein Is the Only Candidate for Assessor Who Has Filed Nomination Thus Far.

A city election is to be held in Belleville on April 1. The last day for filing nominations is March 17. There are many candidates in the field. The Citizens' League has nominated a ticket, which is as follows:

For assessor, H. J. Klein.

For aldermen, First ward, George F. Seib; Second ward, Fritz Kuni; Third ward, Martin Schnipper; Fourth ward, Joseph A. Grunewald; Fifth ward, Emil J. Kohl; Seventh ward, E. H. Stephani.

Mr. Seib has not accepted the nomination yet, but it is understood that he will.

The complete list of candidates who have filed their nomination papers, is as follows:

For assessor, H. J. Klein (Citizens); for chief supervisor, John Schultz, Joseph C. Kissel; for assistant supervisor, Henry A. Rutter, John Voegtle; for justice of the peace, to fill vacancy, none; for constable, to fill vacancy, Henry T. Gabel; for aldermen, First ward, none; Second ward, Fred Kretchmar, Fritz Kuni; Third ward, Martin Schnipper; Fourth ward, Joseph A. Gruenewald, Geo. Richards; Fifth ward, George Yung; 18th ward, Anthony J. Christmann, Wm. R. James; Seventhward, H. WiliamNagel, Samuel Zulauf, JosephL. Adam, Edward H. Stephan.

Chas. Bux has withdrawn as candidate for alderman of the Fifth ward.

OFFICERS OUTSHOT BURGLARS.

One Intruder Was Killed and the Other Wounded.

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., March 11.—One burglar was shot and killed and another was wounded by a policeman here early today. The men had broken into the hardware store of Durham Bros., and were seen by two policemen.

The burglars tried to escape and fired two shots at the policemen, one of whom returned the fire. The dead man was Clarance Outhouse, 30 years old, of Peekskill. His companion, who is under arrest, refuses to give his name. He was shot in the hand.

NEW TAX SCHEMES FOR MINNESOTA

SUBMITTED TO THE PEOPLE BY THE LEGISLATURE.

INCOME TAX IS THE BASIS

Three Methods Proposed for the Taxation of All Public Service Corporations.

ST. PAUL, March 11—The first special session of the St. Paul legislature in 21 years and the third special session in the history of the state adjourned at noon today, having been in session exactly five weeks. The session met Feb. 4 to consider the tax code and constitutional amendments prepared by the tax commission provided for at the regular session one year ago. The work of that commission, however, was rejected, the bills submitted being defeated as too radical in the changes proposed. Within 24 hours of adjournment other tax measures were passed and provision was made for the submission of other constitutional amendments to a vote of the people. These amendments allow the legislature to impose a general income tax in lieu of all taxes on personal property. A tax not to exceed 10 per cent per annum on the income of all credits, in lieu of any other tax on credits is provided for, and also an income tax of not more than 4 per cent on all salaries in excess of $1600 a year.

Three methods for the taxation of public service corporations are allowed by the amendments: A gross earnings tax in lieu of all other taxation; a gross earnings tax in addition to the tax on real property, and a franchise tax in addition to taxes on real and personal property.

Two important tax measures, to be effective under the present constitution, were passed, the inheritance tax bill and the real estate tax bill.

A bill introduced by Mr. Johnson, of Hennepin county, and passed, provides that the public examiner shall inspect the tax accounts of railroads doing business in the state and report whether these lines are paying their proper taxes.

Some attention was paid to the merger of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads, and the sum of $25,000 was appropriated to furnish the attorney general with some of the sinews of war needed to prosecute the fight.

When it was learned that under the decision of the supreme court the state had no standing in the federal courts, the legislature adopted a memorial to congress urging an amendment to the judiciary act so as to give the state the same standing as a citizen in these courts.

The last bill to pass both houses was the bill appropriating $50,000 for a state exhibit at St. Louis next year. This passed the senate just before adjournment.

NEW POINT IN MURDER CASE

Convicted of Felonious Assault, Aged Man Was Charged With Murder When Victim Died.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MARYVILLE, Mo., March 11.—The trial of Albert Walker, charged with killing Owen Logan, who had called on his daughter against his wishes, June 21, 1901, at Arkoe, is in progress here. Walker's hair is white from age.

Shortly after the shooting, Walker was adjudged guilty of felonious assault and sentenced to serve one year in the county jail.

Soon after Walker began his jail sentence, Logan died.

The state then procured an indictment, charging Walker with murder.

Walker's attorneys contend that the second indictment and trial are in violation of the constitution, which provides that the life or liberty of no man shall be put in jeopardy twice for the same offense.

Walker had repeatedly warned Logan not to call on his daughter.

DIVORCE AFTER 26 YEARS

After twenty-six years of married life, Henry B. Hanna filed suit Tuesday for divorce from his wife, Mary E. Hanna.

Mr. Hanna states in his petition that he was married July 6, 1875, and that he and his wife separated Dec. 3, 1899. They had seven children, three of whom are now minors.

Mr. Hanna charges his wife with desertion.

ST. LOUISANS IN THE RICE CASE

Drs. Lee and Love Among the Experts for Patrick.

LEE TREATED MR. M'KINLEY

TESTIFIED REGARDING CHARACTER OF CHLOROFORM.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 11.—St. Louis doctors figure prominently in the array of experts to testify in behalf of Albert Patrick.

Dr. E. W. Lee, who aided in the operation upon Mr. McKinley at Buffalo, was on the stand most of yesterday, and Dr. I. N. Love is to testify today.

Dr. Lee testified that the odor of chloroform would remain in a room for several hours after the drug was used. He thought that, if chloroform was used to kill Mr. Rice, as Jones declared, the odor would have remained on his beard fully three-quarters of an hour.

In answer to a long hypothetical question, Dr. Lee gave it as his opinion that Rice died of congestion of the lungs and diseased kidneys.

He said that the vapor of chloroform is not irritant. Mr. Osborn took a bottle of chloroform out of his pocket and bade the doctor hold it under his tongue. He did so and declared he felt no irritation. He held it under his eye for ten minutes, and again said he felt no irritation. Attorney Osborne wanted the jurors to perform these tests, but the recorder forbade it.

Dr. Lee also testified that chloroform was not combustible, but said that, if a towel saturated with it was left to dry thirty minutes, it would then burn more readily than before saturation because of the alcohol in chloroform. This supported Jones story that the towel "blazed right up."

Dr. James Ewing, pathologist at the Cornell University Medical College, in this city, tetified that he believed Mr. Rice died of congestion and odema of the lungs. He also declared that, in his opinion, nothing in the appearance of the old man's body indicated that he died of chloroform poisoning.

COLDER WEATHER WEDNESDAY

Tuesday Was Warmest Day of 1902, but a Drop of 12 Degrees Is Predicted.

Real spring weather, so far as temperature goes, was furnished to St. Louis Tuesday morning, the record of 62 degrees at 7 o'clock proving this to be the warmest day of 1902 thus far.

Monday, with 50 degrees, was the warmest up to its date.

Dr. Hyatt ventures the prediction, however, that by 7 o'clock Wednesday morning there will be a drop of from 12 to 15 degrees.

"A few weeks ago," says the doctor, "a prediction of a drop of 15 degrees caused people to lay in extra coal and think about buying that fur coat in the store window which they had coveted all winter. But now such a drop will not be felt so much. I think we shall have a temperature of about 50, or possibly 48, tomorrow morning."

For the rest, there is a forecast of partly cloudy weather, with showers, Tuesday afternoon and night, probably fair Wednesday.

A "low" and a "high," the one from the southwest and the other from the northwest, are in a race for this part of the country. The "low," Dr. Hyatt says, will cross the line, which is the Mississippi river, first. That will bring the showers, and when the "high" gets in, badly winded but not blowing, it will bring the clear weather and the lower temperature.

THE WEATHER INDICATIONS.

The weather indications for St. Louis and vicinity are partly cloudy, with showers Tuesday night and Tuesday night. Probably fair fire department and, as his acquaintance among public men grew, he became more and more a power for fire department aid.

FATHER OF PENSION FUND.

Hobbs was father of the Firemen's Pension Fund. His warmest supporters in his campaigns for elective offices were members of the fire department. The late John Lindsay, former chief of the department, had desk room in Hobbs' office in the Commercial building, where the Hotel Reporter was published.

In 1885 Hobbs was defeated for city recorder. There were frauds. Hobbs charged that he was counted out. In 1886 Hobbs was elected recorder of deeds. He was the only man on the Republican ticket who pulled through. His plurality was 2729. In 1890 he was re-elected by a majority of 2618. He was defeated in 1894. Then he bought the Daily Hotel Reported and had made it a successful paper when he was appointed election commissioner by Gov. Dockery with the endorsement of his old employers, the proprietors of the Globe-Democrat.

Fourteen years ago "Billy" Hobbs first served as Santa Claus at the Christmas celebration of the Pope School, Laclede and Ewing avenues. At every following Christmas his services were called for and, for several seasons past, he has filled the same role at other schools and at church festivals.

At the Post-Dispatch Christmas festival of 1901 his greatest service in this capacity was performed. Seated in an automobile, he rode into the Coliseum as the modern Santa Claus and gave the signal for the distribution of food, clothing and toys to thousands of the poor and destitute of St. Louis to commence.

Mrs. Margaret Scott, the dead man's sister, has made her home with the family.

Besides his official position under the state government and his publishing interests, Mr. Hobbs had of late devoted a part of his time to the service of the advertising department of the St. Louis Transit Co.

He was a member of the Legion of Honor and held memberships in other fraternal orders.

Monday night, at Mr. Hobb's request, Father O. J. McDonald, of St. Ann's church baptized him into the Catholic church. The sacraments of the church were administered before his death.

To Erect a $15,000 Church.—The Compton Hill Presbyterian Church, whose chapel was destroyed by fire a few months ago, will erect a new $15,000 edifice.

KNOX BEGINS MERGER SUIT

Attorney General Urges Dissolution of Northern Securities Company as Conspiracy to Violate Law.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 11.—The petition of Attorney-General Knox for the dissolution of the Northern Securities Co. as being a conspiracy to violate the laws of the United States, was filed here late yesterday afternoon in the United States Court.

The complainant alleges that the company was formed after the efforts to combine great railroad systems had been defeated, the purpose being to defeat the state and federal authorities by furnishing the defense that the Northern Securities Co. does not hold a majority of the capital stock of the Great Northern Railway. The attorney-general avers that the company provides in effect for the combination of the competing lines and that, if the merger stands, then the public will be placed absolutely at the mercy of any holding corporation which may seek to consolidate all the railroads of the country into one system.

The petitioner states that the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads, the merger of which is proposed, are the only competing lines through the northern portion of the country and that a vast section relies upon them for transportation service. It is to the public's interest that they continue to be independent.

The proceeding is brought under the Sherman anti-trust act passed July 2, 1890.

POPE'S COUNSEL TO SBARRETTI

Leo Urged Him to Conciliate Americans in Philippines.

ROME, March 11.—When the Pope received Mgr. Sbarretti yesterday before the departure of the latter for the Philippines, he urged him to make every effort to work with and conciliate the Americans, from whom, including President Roosevelt himself, the papal government had received such evident marks of friendliness.

The words of the pontiff are the most important, since he has recently received many warm petitions from the friars and their protectors urging him to maintain their moral and material supremacy in the Philippines and recommending him especially to prevent their removal.

Several cardinals consider that, if Washington insists, the friars must ultimately be gradually withdrawn.

HUMPTY DUMPTY IN THE DARK.

Light Went Out at McCasland's, but Fun Kept Up.

For 15 minutes Wm. Ruge of the Humpty Dumpty Theatrical Company entertained an East Side audience at McCasland's Opera House Sunday night with no other light than that given by two candles.

The electric lights ceased to do their work in the middle of the performance. A fuse and a transformer burned out. While a hurried trip was made to the electrical supply house, Ruge lighted two "prop" candles and by their glow told funny stories and allowed himself to be pelted with peanut shells by the audience.

When his supply of humor was exhausted he called upon Joe Latory, on of the company, to sing.

With due regard to the fitness of things, he rendered "Ain't It a Shame."

The audience took the wait good-naturedly and when the lights were finally in condition the play went on.

TAFT UNDER SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Philippine Governor Passed Successfully Through the Ordeal.

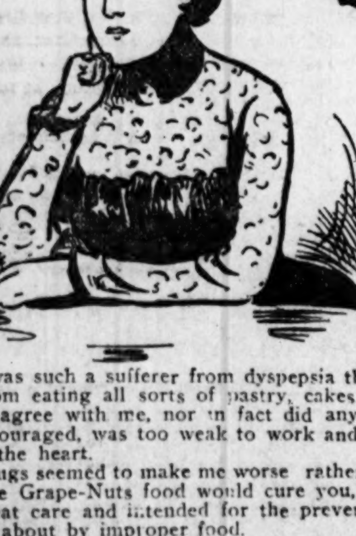

CINCINNATI, March 11.—William H. Taft, governor of the Philippines, underwent a surgical operation today at the Jewish hospital in this city, as he has contemplated since his consultation with an expert in New York immediately after his return to this country.

The operation is not regarded as serious, and it was successfully performed. The patient is reported as doing nicely. He will be in the hospital, perhaps, three weeks.

ASSAULTS IN BREWERY STRIKE.

Two Persons Seriously Hurt in Fights at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, March 11.—After the failure of the conference last night to adjust the differences between the proprietors of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport breweries and the United Brewery Workmen, there were several engineers assaulted and two of them are reported seriously injured today. There were several acts of violence again today, which caused the patrol wagons to haul away injured men. As the stationery engineers insist on remaining under the jurisdiction of the engineers' union and refuse to abide by the orders of the United Brewery Workmen, the engineers at the breweries are the ones who are attacked most, but the new drivers and all others who are working for the breweries at this time are subject to assaults from the crowds.

All Day Sunday

She Thought About a Food that would Agree with Her.

An unnatural appetite for rich and improper foods is really kept alive by the use of such foods, whereas a change to healthful, nourishing and scientifically made food will correct the unnatural appetite. A little woman up at Peekskill, N. Y., Margaret Smith, P. O. Box 193, says:

"I was such a sufferer from dyspepsia that life was a burden. I could hardly keep from eating all sorts of pastry, cakes and other rich foods, although they did not agree with me, nor in fact did any sort of food. I became low spirited and discouraged, was too weak to work and very seriously troubled with palpitation of the heart.

"Drugs seemed to make me worse rather than better. A friend said one day: 'I believe Grape-Nuts food would cure you,' explaining that that food was made with great care and intended for the prevention and relief of diseases that were brought about by improper food.

"That was Saturday night, and all day Sunday I kept thinking about Grape-Nuts, and the first thing Monday morning I sent for a package. I had it in my mind that the food would look like nuts, and was disappointed when I found it had to be eaten with a spoon. However, I followed the directions and made a meal of Grape-Nuts and milk, which I found to be delicious, and for the first ... in months, I suffered no distress after eating.

"I at once began to feel hopeful that I might be cured at last. Since that I have used Grape-Nuts constantly, morning and night, and have steadily ... in health, until now I am as well as I ever was in my life; weigh ten ... I did a year ago, have no palpitation of the heart and can ...

... with soft-boiled eggs. I make my din... the best things about this cure by ... for the rich, indigestible rubbish

AMERICAN CHURCH TO CONTROL HAWAII

CALIFORNIA BISHOP WILL RELIEVE ENGLISH PRELATE APRIL 1.

LONG FIGHT IS THUS ENDED

Property of New American Episcopal Diocese Is Worth $1,000,000 and Will Increase.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The Episcopalians of the territory of Hawaii will come under the jurisdicton of the Episcopal Church of America April 1 next.

They will no longer be under the Church of England and Lord Bishop Alfred Willis will rtire. Bishop Nichols of the diocese of California has been directed by the presiding bishop of the United States to make the transfer, and he will sail for Honolulu March 22 to undertake this important duty.

This will end a bitter factional fight that has been waged for years on the islands. The climax was reached when Lord Bishop Willis came from the islands to attend the Episcopal convention held in this city in October last. He had been sent out from England in 1872 by the Bishop of Canterbury as lord bishop of Hawaii. At that time Hawaii was a mere missionary field, but it has since grown to be a diocese of vast importance. When Lord Bishop Willis arrived in this city he felt that his fight was lost; that he was expected to resign, and that the church property, valued at about $1,000,000, must be transferred to the American church. With a broken voice he said:

"I will lay my case before the convention. Should they desire to take the present church under their jurisdiction, I will bow to the inevitable. I must admit that there are many in Honolulu in favor of seeing the Church of England in the islands annexed to the Episcopal Church of America. Should this step be taken I will go back to England."

Bishop Nichols, with the power vested in him, will go down to the island of Hawaii and formally receive the property of the Episcopalians. The learned divine who was sent from England, will retire, go back to his mother country and report to his archbishop.

The successor to Bishop Willis is not at present announced, but at the recent convention Archdeacon Emery of this city was prominently mentioned for the place. The Rev. Dr. Alexander Mackintosh, rector of Honolulu, is also a likely candidate. He has held services in the church at Honolulu for several years with a large following, while Bishop Willis, representing the old faction, held services in the same edifice to much smaller congregations.

SHOPPERS IN FLOWER GARDEN.

Penny & Gentles' Spring Opening Attracts Most by Its Novelties.

The regular spring opening of millinery was in force at Penney & Gentle's Tuesday. The rain, of course, kept many visitors away, but the crowd that came found a store prettily decorated with smilax and potted plants and palms and ferns artistically arranged on pedestals and in corners of the departments.

There are a number of very fetching spring productions in the way of headgear at this place, and the black and white creations were very pretty. One was of black satin straw with cream lace inserting, a large flaring brim with handsome plumes and dropping scarf in back. Another, a picture hat, of white tucked moline embroidered in black lace knots beaded in silver, the large brim tipped on the left side, was finished with dropping plumes and wide black ribbon knots held with large marguerites. A colonial hat of white Neapolitan braid was trimmed with satin ribbon pearl ornaments and a scarf effect of the fancy braid.

A beautiful picture hat was made of moline embroidered in gilt, the sweeping effect of pink French rose buds formed the side trimming. A large black lace hat was trimmed in a handsome scarf and the crown composed of black silk roses, with a sweeping plume on left side—this was a Virot.

All of the latest designs were shown in the suit department. Ladies' tailor-made are of broadcloth with drop skirts over taffeta silk. One very handsome dress was a black striped chiffon, with long train over lavender silk taffeta. Eton jackets, blouses, silk raglans and various styles of spring wraps, were shown in abundance. In the waists department waists in all the new shades were shown in taffeta, crepe de chine, moire, louisine and peau de soie. The Gibson waists are to be seen in great variety. The Louis XVI. skirts are one of the newest productions.

VENICE NEWS.

Some New Ideas in Shirts.

It is the above important feature we desire to bring to your attention.

We are showing exquisite patterns of the newest and most exclusive character—styles which we import in the piece direct from England, Scotland and France—and then have them made up by custom-shirtmakers in the most modern and correct fashions.

Coat-shirts—narrow cuff attached and pleated bosom—will be very popular. Small figured designs on white, also on tan grounds—also raised cords—are very handsome.

BOYS TAUGHT JOYCE TO READ

Last week State Factory Inspector Chas. J. Nordmeyer, in enforcing the state law against child labor, took from a shoe factory John Joyce, aged thirteen, who was anxious to work and to get an education.

Mr. Nordmeyer now intends to compensate the boy for his loss of employment by taking him to his home, 2815 Shenandoah avenue, and providing for his schooling until he has reached the age of fourteen, the legal limit for employment in factories.

"If he wants to pursue his studies after that time," said Mr. Nordmeyer, "I will help him."

John Joyce has not attended school for more than two months, and has acquired his education from newspaper reading. He was taught to read and write, after a fashion, by boys with whom he sold papers. He has lived for two years with Mrs. M. A. McClellan, at 512 South Twenty-second street, and has made his own living by working at the Werthelmer-Swarts Shoe Co.'s factory.

JUDGE REBUKED PROFANITY.

Jurymen Censured by Judge Ryan in the Le Bee Case.

"Which member of this jury was it who used profane language in the jury room?" asked Judge O'Neil Ryan Tuesday morning of Peter D. Blattner, foreman of the jury in the case of Edward Le Bee.

Blattner pointed out James Burke of 924 North Twenty-first street. Burke said that he had used no more profanity in the jury room than had been used by other members of the jury. Judge Ryan dismissed the jury, adding that he would take up later the conduct of the members while in consultation.

Judge Ryan also took occasion to censure the jury for its verdict, which named as Le Bee's punishment a fine of $250. Le Bee was charged with immorality, the prosecuting witness being Mary Gibson.

GAYNOR AND GREENE FOUND.

They Are Registered by Right Names at Quebec Hotel.

QUEBEC, March 11.—Col. John F. Gaynor and his partner, W. D. Greene, charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States government and wanted for hearing in Savannah, Ga., by the federal authorities, are registered at the Chateau Frontenac. They arrived there two days ago and Mrs. Gaynor joined her husband Monday.

Col. Gaynor, in response to questions, would only say:

"My name is registered properly at this hotel. Anyone having business with me will know where to find me."

SECOND LARGEST OF SAILERS.

Bark Daylight, 352 Feet Long, Has Stormy Maiden Voyage.

NEW YORK, March 11.—There was anchored off Quarantine last night the second largest sailing vessel in the world, the four-masted steel bark, Daylight, which has just completed a very stormy maiden voyage of 51 days from Grennock, Scotland.

The Daylight is a first-class steel vessel with a gross tonnage of 3765 tons, about a hundred tons less than the five-masted bark Potosi, the largest sailing vessel in the world. The Daylight has a carrying capacity of 7000 tons and was built especially for carrying case oil. She was launched at Port Glasgow in December last, and is owned by the Angio-American Oil Co. of London. Her dimensions are: Length, 353 feet; beam, 50 feet, and depth, 32 feet.

Capt. James Reade, who commanded the last of the sailing ships of the White Star line, commands the new Daylight. His crew consists of 41 men.

SOLDIERS HURT IN A WRECK.

Twenty-Second Infantry, Returning From Philippines, the Victims.

OMAHA, March 11.—Eight soldiers were injured, several of them seriously, at Fort Crook, by the derailment of a Burlington coach on the train which brought the Twenty-second infantry to the fort early today.

The train was being sidetracked and one of the coaches was derailed and overturned. It was loaded with soldiers, most of whom were asleep. The names of the injured and the nature of their injuries have not yet been learned, but all are reported to have been taken to the post hospital.

HUNGARIAN COUNT'S SUICIDE.

Shot Himself at Waco, Tex., Where He Made Fortune.

WACO, Tex., March 11.—Ignatz Lowinger, by birth a Hungarian count, a native of Temeswar, Hungary, committed suicide at the McClelland Hotel by shooting himself through the temple with a revolver.

No cause can be assigned for the act. For political reasons about 30 years ago the count left his native land and came to Waco, where he amassed a large fortune. About three weeks ago he married a wealthy widow and appeared happy up to the time of his death.

ENGLAND AFTER CUBA'S TRADE.

LONDON, March 11.—Delegates from several chambers of commerce visited the foreign secretary, Lord Lansdowne, at the foreign office today, and presented a memorial relative to British trade with Cuba, pointing out that it was assured that when the administration of that island was handed over to the Cubans a reciprocity treaty would be negotiated, admitting Cuban produce into the United States at reduced duties, and granting corresponding preferential terms to American produce and manufactures by Cuba.

"The United States," says the memorial, "when declaring war on Spain, expressly stated that their action would be limited to freeing Cuba from Spanish rule. It was, therefore, understood by those in Europe engaged in trade with Cuba that no measures would be adopted at the conclusion of the war which would restrict or destroy their trade with that island. Such a reciprocity treaty as that anticipated would undoubtedly put an end to European trade with the island."

The memorial closes with a request that the British minister at Washington be instructed to protest against the signing of such a treaty.

GRIP BACILLUS COMING WESTWARD

Bacillus of Grip Magnified 16,000 Times.

Epidemic Started in Russia and Western Europe.

Moving Rapidly Westward.

(Special Cable from London.)

It Has Already Crossed England and the Atlantic.

Has Reached the Eastern Sea-Coast of the United States.

"The Epidemic Will Be General All Over the United States in a Few Days."

Mrs. Theophile Schmitt, wife of the ex-secretary of the German consulate, writes the following letter from 3417 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill.:

"I suffered this winter with a severe attack of la grippe. After using three bottles of Peruna I found the la grippe had disappeared." — Mrs. T. Schmitt.

Representative J. H. Caldwell from Benton, La., writes.

"I have found Peruna to be a most effective remedy for la grippe."—Representative J. H. Caldwell.

Congressman George H. White from Tarboro, N. C., says:

"I find Peruna to be an excellent remedy for the grip. I am more than satisfied with it."—Congressman George H. White.

Hon. James R. Guill of Omaha, Neb., writes:

"I am 68 years old, am hale and hearty, and Peruna has helped me attain it. Two years ago I had la grippe—my life was despaired of. Peruna saved me." —Hon. James R. Guill.

Mrs. Harriet A. S. Marsh, President of the Woman's Benevolent Association of Chicago, writes:

"I suffered with grip seven weeks. Nothing helped me. Tried Peruna and within three weeks I was fully restored. Shall never be without it again."—Mrs. Harriet A. S. Marsh.

La grippe has always been a peculiarly fatal disease. Its ravages are not so alarming as diphtheria, or so much dreaded as smallpox, but its number of victims are greater than either.

Silently—insidiously—it gathers in its fearful harvest of precious lives. It does not spread from man to man like a contagious disease, nor does it belong to limited localities like malaria. It is in the air everywhere. It is of climatic origin. No man can escape from it, no woman is safe from it.

"MEDICAL TALK" Says:

Speaking of remedies for la grippe, the editor of Medical Talk, one of the popular medical journals of the present time, says: "Whatever may be said against proprietary medicines in a general way, the fact remains that there are more people who rely upon Peruna as a remedy for la grippe than use all other remedies combined. No other remedy is so widely used and implicitly believed in as a remedy for la grippe as Peruna. There is no way to account for this fact except that Peruna is what the people believe it to be—a specific for la grippe."

Almost everybody knows that Peruna will cure acute catarrh. But not many know that la grippe is simply acute catarrh. If they did they would use Peruna with the same surety of a cure as in any other case of acute catarrh.

Already the news is rapidly spreading that Peruna is a prompt and unfailing remedy for la grippe.

The demand for Peruna North, South, East and West, is taxing the utmost facilities of the drug trade.

La Grippe Is Epidemic Catarrh.

La grippe is acute catarrh excited by peculiar climatic conditions. It sweeps across a continent in a single week, like the blizzard of winter or the hot wave of summer. It does not depopulate whole villages like the black plague, nor desolate a home like malignant diphtheria, but it counts its single victims here and there incessantly, night and day, week after week.

Since 1850 Dr. Hartman

Has passed through four or five epidemics of la grippe. During all this time he has conducted an extensive practice of medicine. Few (if any) physicians prescribe for so many patients. His experience in climatic diseases has been simply prodigious.

Thousands of patients are continually under his directions, either personally or by correspondence. The Doctor's fame in treating la grippe is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The Doctor believes that he has never yet lost a case of la grippe, and is enthusiastic in the conviction that he never will.

Dr. Hartman's Remedy.

The remedy upon which the Doctor has relied for the cure of la grippe for over forty years is Peruna. Peruna is a scientific catarrh specific. It cures catarrh whether acute or chronic.

La grippe is simply acute catarrh which sometimes rages as an epidemic.

The present epidemic of la grippe will increase this demand four-fold.

The resources for the manufacture of Peruna are not unlimited. This extraordinary demand may exceed the possible supply of it.

Every Person, Especially Every Family

Should provide themselves at once with a supply of this well-tested remedy for la grippe.

Peruna has been the regular prescription of Dr. Hartman for over forty years. It has become the safeguard of thousands of households. In the midst of this epidemic no one should fail to take a dose of Peruna before each meal to guard against the possibility of an attack.

Those stricken with the disease should begin with teaspoonful doses of Peruna every hour, and continue until the acute symptoms subside, after which two teaspoonsful before meals will be sufficient to continue the treatment until complete recovery.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

HIS LAST DAY IN AMERICA

Prince Henry Will Sail orf Home This Afternoon.

GOES ABOARD DEUTSCHLAND

TOO WEARY TO PAY CONTEMPLATED FAREWELL CALLS.

At a Dinner Monday Night the Prince Emphatically Denied That His Visit Had Any Secret Purpose.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Prince Henry of Prussia, who went on board the Deutschland about 1 o'clock this morning, after the gala performance in his honor at the Irving Place Theater, spent a quiet morning on the steamship. It had been planned that the prince would make several farewell visits, but it was said this morning that he felt the need of rest and that the leave takings would take place on the Deutschland. Those who were expected to call were German Ambassador Von Holleben, Rear Admiral Evans, Adjutant-General Corbin, Col. Bingham, Commander Cowles, Assistant Secretary of State Hill, Karl Buenz, the German consul-general at New York, and the mayor of New York.

The police of Hoboken made extra preparations to keep in order the large crowds which gathered in the hope of seeing the prince before the Deutschland sailed. The time set for the steamer to leave her pier was 3:30 p. m. Prince Henry breakfasted at 8:30 o'clock with the members of his suite and Capt. Albers of the Deutschland. During the breakfast the band played German and American airs. After breakfast Prince Henry promenaded the deck of the Deutschland smoking a cigarette, and while he was doing this the life saving drill signal was sounded aboard the big freighter Pretoria, moored a few piers away.

In a twinkling, after the alarm was blown, the lifeboats were freed and made ready for launching. This was followed by a firedrill and in less than five minutes after the alarm was given, a dozen streams of water were pouring over the sides of the vessel. The prince was interested in the exhibition and said the response to the calls was very prompt. Several members of the prince's party went this morning to Elizabethport, N. J., to visit the Nixon shipbuilding yards.

PRINCE HENRY DENIED RUMOR.

Had No Secret Motive in Coming Here, He Said.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Prince Henry completed the program of his visit to the United States last night and went to his quarters on the Deutschland for his voyage to Germany.

The most interesting event of the last day in this country was the reception to him by the Union League Club of Philadelphia, at which the prince made a farewell address in which he denied the statement that he had a secret motive in coming here. The address in full was as follows:

I wish to thank you for the kind reception I met with in the Union League. Gentlemen, this is probably the last opportunity I will have during my visit to the United States to speak in public, and I am not sorry that this should be so. What I am going to communicate to you here I am saying before the world. There has been absolutely no secret object in view connected with my mission to your country. Should any of you read or hear anything to the contrary, I authorize you herewith to flatly contradict it. I was told before leaving my home to open my eyes as well as my ears as wide as possible; to see as little as I could. In the latter instance I am afraid my mission is a failure. I saw many more things than many of you may be aware of. I equally heard a great many things, among others many kind words of individuals as well as the shouts of welcome of thousands of your countrymen. What I express in your presence I express in the presence of your nation—my heartfelt thanks for the cordial reception and good feeling I met with during my stay in your country. It will be my duty to inform his majesty, the Emperor, of this fact. I am homeward bound tomorrow. It would be wrong of me to say I am sorry to go home, but at the same time I feel sorry to leave a country in which I have met with so much kindness and hospitality. Let me add, gentlemen, let us try and be friends.

The prince returned to New York in the afternoon and went direct to the Deutschland on a tug, where he gave a dinner to all who had been his hosts while in New York.

At night he went to the Irving Place Theater. While his carriage was approaching the entrance one of the wheels brushed down a support of the canopy. In the excitement, the prince jumped from the carriage, but was not hurt. He enjoyed the performance greatly. At its conclusion he returned to the Deutschland.

KAISER'S PLANS FOR BROTHER.

Prince Henry Will Command Squadrons at Two Coronations.

KIEL, March 11.—Prince Henry will command the naval squadron that will represent Germany at the coronation of King Alfonso of Spain and Edward VII of England. His squadron will be the largest ever sent out from Germany, and the naval builders are working overtime with extra forces to finish many of the vessels now being constructed in time for the ceremonies.

MR. WU'S RECALL IS URGED

Chinese Minister Charged by Censor With Holding Back $80,000 of Tien Tsin Fund.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister, says he has not been officially notified that a memorial has been presented to his government for his recall on the ground that he did not turn over to his government all the money remitted by the United States as the result of the capture of Tien Tsin.

The complainant is a censor close to the throne. The charge is that Minister Wu retained $80,000 of the fund ostensibly for repairs on the legation building at Washington.

The money was paid to Minister Wu through a draft by Secretary Hay, Jan. 22. The amount was $376,000, representing the volume of the silver bullion taken by the American marines at Tien Tsin.

Mr. Wu said he promptly informed his government of the remittance and placed the entire amount at its disposal. An acknowledgment was received by telegraph. Not one cent of it, he said, had been misappropriated.

OWNERS OF CATS CLUB TOGETHER

WISH TO ELEVATE PUSSY'S SOCIAL STANDING.

HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CATS

Organization Proposes That No Feline Shall Want for Care, No Matter How Humble Its Pedigree.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Washington is now the possessor of a real cat club. The new organization is serious in purpose. The object is simple in the extreme. Primarily, it is to increase public interest in members of the feline family and to raise the cat to a higher social plane. As a secondary object, the club proposes the founding of a home for deserted pussies, who are so unfortunate as to have neither pedigree nor high social status.

The title of the new organization is the Washington Cat Club. It was formed Monday evening at the home of Miss Burritt, at 308 E street northwest. The first meeting was attended by a dozen cat enthusiasts, and officers were chosen.

Miss Burritt outlined the plans of the new organization. "That you may more thoroughly appreciate our work," she began, "let me first show you my cats."

At that instant a handsome feline, with hair several inches long and a tail like the brush of a fox, bounded into the room. "There is one, now," said Miss Burritt, and excusing herself she soon returned with her arms filled with four more, all long haired and big brushed.

"Aren't they beauties?" Miss Burritt exclaimed, ecstatically. "They are all Persian, or Angora as some call them, and as tame and friendly as any pet you have ever seen."

"Cats," she continued, as one of the tabbies deposited himself on the piano stool, another settled himself under a chair and a third climbed into her lap to be fondled, "while they remaining two made themselves thoroughly at home by playing with the chair legs and parlor ornaments, "are just like human beings. They have different natures and different dispositions. To appreciate their qualities you must keep several. Persians are much better tempered than the common variety, and ever so much brighter intellectually. They must be well fed, and groomed daily. I feed these on fresh beefsteak raw each day and on cooked fish, cut up in small slices. Milk I do not give them, as it seems to poison them.

"Oh, but I forgot—the object of our new club. Well, I may as well tell you that Washington is the home of some of the best cat fanciers in the entire country. Washington cats have carried off prizes at all the big cat shows in New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago.

"Naturally we felt that Washington should have a show in order to stimulate local interest, and to secure one we have organized the club. Then the deserted and homeless cat, no matter of how lowly origin, should be given care and attention. That is but humane. Therefore, the club feels that a home should be provided for them.

"Prominent among the cat fanciers of Washington I should mention Mrs. Mabel Cornish Bond. She is the possessor of Menelik III, which captured all the first prizes in the black cat class in the big shows, being beaten but once, at New York, where Menelik's own kitten, Artaxerxes, won first. Mrs. Bond also owns Artaxerxes and I doubt if money would buy either of her pets. She also has a fine collection of other cats of high breeding."

"How much do fine bred Persians cost?"

"Well, they range from $80 to $250 each. About $100 would be a fair average.

Returning to the cat show, which the club proposes to hold in the fall, Miss Burritt said that it would probably be held in connection with the Washington Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock Association, whose recent effort in the show line proved a decided success. Applications for membership in the new club are being rapidly received, and it gives fair promise of becoming a strong body.

DECORATION IS OPPOSED.

O. U. A. M. Asks That City Hall Be Not Draped on St. Patrick's Day.

Independence Council of the United American Mechanics is strongly opposed to the decorating of the City Hall in honor of St. Patrick's Day, and has addressed a petition to the mayor and City Council asking that the latter body vote down the resolution passed by the House of Delegates, permitting the City Hall to be so draped.

The resolutions, signed by Vice Councilor James Butler and Secretary U. Le Gost, point out that "it is thoroughly wrong to decorate any city building in commemoration of a national day of any foreign nation or institution."

On the ground that it is a special privilege that would establish a precedent and cause considerable discontent, it is asked that the decorating be not permitted.

Secretary Le Gost is quoted as saying that his order is not organized to fight any organization or religion.

NOTED BUGGY BUILDER DEAD.

James B. Brewster, Descendant of Mayflower Family, Was 85 Years Old.

NEW YORK, March 11.—James B. Brewster, a widely known carriage and buggy builder, is dead at his home here, in his 85th year.

He was born in New Haven June 8, 1817. He was of the seventh generation in direct descent from Elder William Brewster, of the Mayflower. His father, James Brewster, was the first of the name to embark in the carriage business.

VALUE OF TESTIMONY

Greater Than Assertion.

There is none of us so hardened but that when we have been able to aid our fellow creatures by conferring a benefit or bringing a little comfort into their lives we like to have appreciation shown. This generally affords more pleasure than the performance of the act itself, and in this connection of the following letter from a Paris, Tex., lady is of more than usual interest: "Dear Friends—I address you as such, for you have been such to me. I suffered for three years off and on with piles. I was treated at the hospital, and the new and elegant hospital, of Memphis; they only gave me temporary relief. I came west, thinking the change of air and water would benefit me: five months ago the bleeding piles came back on me, and bled so much I thought I would die. I had all four of the finest doctors in this section of Texas; all they did was to finally nearly let me go to my grave; all they wanted was a big sum of money from me and to operate on me. I said no, no surgeon's knife would enter me; if it was my time to die God knew it, and when I died I would die all together. I began hearing about your medicine. I had no faith in you, but I sent and got a box of your Pyramid Pile Cure; in two days the blood flow I had slackened to one-half the amount, and in one week I felt so much better I walked four blocks and did a little housework. I was not bleeding then; in three weeks I was well. God bless you for putting such a wonderful medicine within the reach of suffering men and women. I shall never cease to recommend your medicine or be without it; also I used your Pyramid Pills."—Sallie A. Hearndon. Testimony like this should be more convincing than all claims and assertions, and should leave no doubt in the mind of the reader as to the merit of the remedy. Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for 50 cents a package, or will be mailed by the makers to any address upon receipt of price. Write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

PREACHER FAVORS TRUST IN SALOONS

BISHOP POTTER THINKS RICH MEN SHOULD ORGANIZE THEM.

LEGAL REGULATION THE END

Pierpont Morgan Is Mentioned as Proper Person to Head Successful English Scheme.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Lord Grey, who has fought the saloon on novel lines and with much success in Great Britain, addressed a gathering of New York men and women philanthropists in the City Club yesterday. He aimed to show how the saloonkeeper could be driven out of business without legislation.

In a nutshell, his plan is for men of means to open saloons, take 5 per cent out of the profits to pay for the capital invested and devote the remainder to free amusement places that will attract men from the saloons.

Bishop Potter was one of the interested listeners to the address. In a short speech just before the close of the meeting he said:

"We have great men who have organized the coal industry, the steel industry and other industries. I do not see why they should not take hold of this problem and organize it on a proper basis. It is a matter of more importance than coal or steel, as it really affects the foundation of the republic."

After Bishop Potter's speech there was some general talk on the subject of trying to get men like J. Pierpont Morgan interested in the proposition to form a company to operate saloons in all sections of the city.

Lord Grey, in outlining the work of the Central Public House Trust Association of Great Britain, which is operating many saloons, said:

"We diminish temptation. We are able to close at earlier hours. We have no sales to children. We divert to public use the vast revenues which now go to private use. We abolish, as centers of political activity, the public house. We sell the very best of stuff and that makes a difference."

William E. Dodge offered the following resolution:

"Resolved that, in the opinion of this meeting, it is desirable to hold a meeting to consider the expediency of securing the elimination of private profit from the retail sale of alcoholic liquors."

Bishop Potter opposed the wording of the resolution, saying that the meeting to be called should consider all phases of the liquor traffic. He added:

"There never was a time when a problem was more perplexed. For myself, I don't see why a legitimate saloon should not be permitted to exist."

The resolution was amended along the lines suggested by the bishop. No date was set for the meeting.

Child Fell Twelve Feet.—Rolla, the 2-year-old son of George Massengill of 1116 South Compton avenue, fell from a porch to the ground, 12 feet, Monday afternoon, and fractured his skull. His condition is serious. The accident happened at 3117 Hickory street.

No More Wars.

Many prominent people of this country and England profess to see the realization of their hopes for universal peace in an Anglo-American alliance. Their plan is to settle all future differences by international arbitration. This news will be joyfully received by everybody, but especially by the soldier who is at present engaged on some foreign battlefield. The news that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will positively cure stomach, liver and bowel complaints will also be gladly received by every sufferer from sickheadache, dizziness, flatulency, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation or biliousness. Do not suffer any longer, but try the Bitters at once. It is backed by a record of 50 years of cures. Beware of counterfeits when buying. Our Private Stamp is over the neck of the bottle.

GREATEST CIVILIZATION

A. Stewart Appleton Says Destiny of Louisiana Purchase Is the Largest in Man's History.

High praise for St. Louis is contained in an article on the marvelous resources and recent developments of the Louisiana Purchase region, which will appear in the polyglot publication, Appleton's International Life, for April. This periodical is published simultaneously in New York and London, in the English, German, French and Spanish languages.

A. Stewart Appleton, Boston literateur and Wall Street financier, is the author of the forthcoming article, which is one of a series. "The Esprit of America's Great Southwest" is the title of the April paper, and the state of Texas receives liberal treatment. Mr. Appleton says:

"The destiny of the United States west of the Mississippi river is the largest destiny in the history of man. No civilization has ever evolved equal to that which the human race is building for itself on the Western plains of America.

"The men of the West have life and nerve; and that which in the East is conservatism, in the West is liberalism.

"The forthcoming World's Fair at St. Louis will be the most influential event in American history toward the popullzation of the numberless acres west of the Father of Waters. This is an unqualified statement which the writer has made before. This great international conclave will magnetize toward the fertile area of the Louisiana Purchase more attention and ultimately more permanent population than any preceding event in America's eventful growth.

"The some-day international meeting of mankind in a final merging of the races of the globe will be on the Pacific Coast, but pending that era a mighty civilization will erect itself from Texas to Manitoba, from the Mississippi to the Coast, and the metropolitan gateway to that civilization, through which Eastern population must pour, will be the great and beautiful city of St. Louis.

"The men who, there, are directing the energizing pulses of life are they who manage the railroads, favor, organize and upbuild the now teeming towns where ten years ago the fresh wind from the Rockies and Gulf of Mexico swept the lonesome buffalo grass."

FUNERAL OF LIEUT. ALLEN.

St. Louis Soldier Boy to Be Buried With Military Honors.

The funeral of Lieut. Ernest Allen of the United States army, who died a few days ago at Vancouver Barracks, will take place Tuesday afternoon at the residence of his mother, Mrs. M. B. Allen, 3147 Pine street, with interment in Bellefontaine. Rev. Dr. Cree of the Central Christian Church will officiate.

Lieut. Allen left West Point with the class of 1900 and was assigned to active service. He participated in the Chinese campaign and the fighting about Manila.

The pallbearers will be Lieut. Mitchell, his personal friend and comrade; Willis Hinckley, Theodore C. Hinckley, Edwin M. Hay, Walter Mattox, Henry W. Blodgett and Frederick Meysenburg. There will be a military escort of honor from Vancouver Barracks, composed of Capt. H. L. Hawthorne, Capt. Richardson, Capt. Bethel, Lieut. Perry M. Cochran, Lieut. Andrews and Lieut. Penner.

WHY ORANGEINE IS PROVEN

P. A. AIKMAN, M. D.,
WINDSOR, ONTARIO,
Gives His Experiences:

"My experiences for the past eight years are now confirmed by millions of powders taken under public varied tests, and PROVE that 'Orangeine' powders not only relieve pain better than any baneful opiate, but at the same time have far-reaching power to cure even chronic ailments, among them HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, ALL PAIN, INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, COLDS, SORE THROAT, 'GRIP,' ASTHMA, HAY FEVER, STOMACH UPSETS, FATIGUE, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, MELANCHOLIA, etc.

"Personally I have taken from one to five powders daily for the last eight years and find myself in much better physical condition than before. My case is particularly significant, as for a number of years I was troubled with a weak heart which has been wonderfully strengthened by 'Orangeine,' and my whole experience shows that 'Orangeine' regulates the digestive organs, purifies the blood, builds up the nervous system, strengthens the heart action, feeds the brain, thereby not only CURING but PREVENTING disease."

JUDGE ROMBAUER ON REVENUE LAWS

WILL EXPLAIN SUPREME COURT ACTION IF HE CAN.

TO REPORT TO SCHOOL BOARD

Board Loses $175,000 a Year and the City $125,000 From Illegal Assessments.

Former Judge R. E. Rombauer, who in behalf of the St. Louis School Board instituted mandamus proceedings before the Missouri Supreme Court to compel the State Board of Equalization to assess the property of public service corporations at its full value, as the law directs, will submit a report to the board Tuesday evening.

In Missouri the State Board of Equalization estimates the total worth of public service property at $360,000,000. Of this amount the state board assesses only $112,000,000.

Thus $248,000,000 entirely escapes taxation. As a result the public schools of St. Louis suffer an annual revenue loss of about $175,000 and the city an additional loss of $125,000.

Judge Rombauer in conjunction with City Counselor Charles Bate filed mandamus proceedings at Jefferson City to force the equalization board to equalize assessments three weeks ago. Within two hours after the petition was filed and while Mr. Bates and Judge Rombauer were on their way to St. Louis the Supreme Court handed down its opinion in the case.

The opinion simply said: "The writ is denied."

Judge Rombauer was astonished. He said he was left completely in the dark as to why the Supreme Court had taken such action.

It might have been he thought that the franchise law, passed by the last Legislature, was invalid and again the decision might have resulted from some flaw in the petition.

Either theory and half a dozen others Judge Rombauer considered plausible, but the declination of the Supreme Court to explain the decision left the attorneys without any recourse.

PREACHERS HEARD OF PIT

Methods of Grain Trade Explained to Methodist Ministers by N. L. Moffitt.

Speaking of the subject, "Methods on 'Change," N. L. Moffitt, a commission dealer, explained to the Methodist ministers at their meeting in the Wash Street Church Monday the system in vogue in the modern wheat trade.

The trade in futures was explained by Mr. Moffitt with especial care. He said that the practice of trading in futures has placed grain in a class with gold, as a commodity on which value can be immediately realized at any time.

Arguing in favor of the practice of dealing in futures, Mr. Moffitt said that the law recognizes the difference which is a venture with calculation, and gambling, which is a venture without calculation. He quoted a remark of a famous grain dealer who said that he never speculated, meaning that he always kept his cash grain hedged by selling and buying futures.

The credit of the elevator man who adopts this safeguard, Mr. Moffitt said, is always higher than that of the man who fails to do so.

BARR'S BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Spring Opening Is United With Fifty-Third Anniversary Celebration.

Barr's is having its annual spring opening and celebrating its 53d birthday. The display of spring novelties and fabrics shown in each department is most complete.

The suit and cloak department have many magnificent creations, both imported and domestic. All the costumes shown in this department are perfect models of the dressmaker's art. Toilets of organdy, point d'esprit, crepe de chine and linen, all models and only one of a pattern in each style, range in price from $20 to $275. The tailor gowns of homespun, etamine, broadcloth cheviots, and the new basket weaves, in all colors and styles, can be had at reasonable prices. The new long coffee coat in silk, etamine and cloth, for evening and street wear, can be seen here in all varieties.

Dress skirts in the Gibson and serpentine effects, silks waists, including many new creations in taffeta, peau de sole, moire, louisine, in dark and evening shades, are shown in endless array.

The silk and dress goods departments show a complete assortment of foreign and domestic materials in all weaves. A most beautiful line of ladies' laundered shirtwaists, in the Gibson, in white P. K. and canvas, in dainty India linen, Paris muslin, silk mull, plain and embroidered, include many exclusive novelties. These waists are to be had at prices from $1.50 to $15.

In the millinery department are hats of every description and at all prices. A beautiful Esther Meyer is a Japanese plaque of natural colored straw, faced with smooth straw in white and overlaid with filet lace. On the crown and falling over the hair is a rope of straw, intertwined with cherries and apple blossoms.

MARTINELLI TO COME HERE

Papal Delegate, Archbishop Kain Says, Will Not Interfere in Immaculate Conception Church Affairs.

Cardinal Sebastian Martinelli, papal apostolic delegate at Washington, to whom the parishioners of the Immaculate Conception Church have referred their controversy with Archbishop Kain, is expected to visit St. Louis soon.

Archbishop Kain, who has announced the intended visit of the papal representative, says that his coming to St. Louis will have no relation to the Immaculate Conception Church controversy, in which, he says, Mgr. Martinelli has fully decided not to interfere.

During his recent visit to the East, which was made in company with Father D. S. Phelan, the archbishop visited Cardinals Gibbons and Martinelli and spent several days at Wheeling, W. Va., the seat of his former episcopate.

LECTURE BY LIEUT. CARDEN.

Feature of Ordnance Night, Next Thursday, at Mercantile Club. Club.

Thursday evening will be ordnance night at the Mercantile Club. Lieut. Godfrey L. Carden of the United States revenue cutter service, in charge of the ordnance exhibit at the World's Fair, will deliver before the club one of a series of lectures which he has prepared.

The lieutenant has chosen for the subjects of his lectures, "Ordnance," "The Men Behind the Guns," "Great Warships" and "Military Armaments."

Lieut. Carden has delivered these lectures in many cities and has been received with great interest. His lecture before the Mercantile Club, which will be illustrated with choice stereopticon views, will be the first that he will deliver in St. Louis.

It is expected that many members will be accompanied by guests, both ladies and gentlemen. There will be an informal table d'hote dinner for members and their guests, preceding the lecture.

WOMAN ROBBED ON STREET.

Man Took Money and Parasol From Mrs. Hellman of McPherson Avenue.

A well-dressed highwayman robbed Mrs. A. M. Hellman of 5025 McPherson avenue, at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, of her gold-handled parasol and the contents of her pocketbook.

Mrs. Hellman had alighted from a car at King's highway and Delmar boulevard and was walking southward, when the man stepped up to her.

"Give me that pocketbook," he said.

Without hesitation Mrs. Hellman, who held her pocketbook in her hand, complied. She requested the thief to return the pocketbook after he had emptied it of the few dollars which it contained. He did so.

"Hand me that parasol," said the robber.

Mrs. Hellman handed over the parasol, and the highwayman walked away, remarking:

"That's all I want."

MOTORMAN'S INJURIES FATAL.

Benjamin J. Durrett Struck Down by Taylor Avenue Car.

Benjamin J. Durrett, a transit company motorman, died at St. John's hospital at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning from injuries received by being run down by a street car at Taylor avenue and Morgan street an hour earlier.

Durrett was 23 years old, and boarded at 4524 Morgan street. He stepped from a Spalding avenue car, and as he started across the street, he stepped directly in front of north bound Taylor avenue car, in charge of A. J. Schultz. He was knocked down, and when he was picked up he was unconscious. He was taken to the Fairfax avenue car sheds, where Dr. Parrish was called. The doctor said that the man's injuries would prove fatal. He was forwarded to St. John's hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness.

GIRL OF FIFTEEN A BRIDE.

License Refused in St. Louis Granted at Clayton.

Miss Lutie Miller, aged 15, and Rollie E. Davis of Staunton, Ill., got a marriage license at Clayton Monday afternoon after having been refused by Deputy Emil Leonhardt of the St. Louis license office. Mrs. S. L. Miller, the girl's mother, accompanied the young couple, but her consent was not deemed sufficient by Mr. Leonhardt, who wished to see the girl's father.

"I don't know where her father is," said Mrs. Miller, "and if he were here he would leave it all to me."

After they had been married by Probate Judge Wurdeman at Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for their home in Illinois.

HONOR WAS DECIDED BY LOT.

Dr. Bartholdt's Luck Beat Mr. Joy for Committee Appointment.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Representative Bartholdt of St. Louis was appointed last night to fill the vacancy on the Republican congressional committee caused by the death of Maj. Charles E. Pearce.

Dr. Bartholdt and Mr. Joy cast lots for the honor, Dr. Bartholdt winning.

Congressman Dougherty has been chosen as the Missouri member of the Democratic congressional committee.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

PRICE ADVANCES March 15, or Earlier

The 40-cent allotment of the Capital Stock of the Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machine Co. is being rapidly subscribed.

Sales of stock at 40 cents (par value, $1.00) will cease on Saturday, March 15th, if not before.

In justice to earlier shareholders, and to avoid the over-subscription which occurred on a previous allotment of the stock, the right is reserved to reject any subscription at 40 cents at the discretion of the officers of the company.

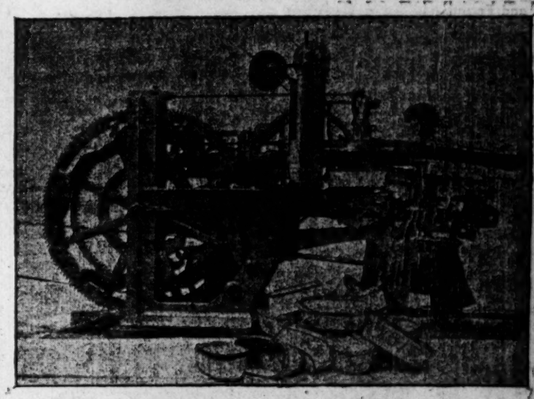

The advance to 50 cents per share will be followed quickly with other advances as the capital for manufacturing machines and equipping basket factories is subscribed.

REASON FOR THE DEMAND.

The history of the selling of stock in this company is one of ready appreciation on the part of the public of a great opportunity. The Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machine Company is the owner of automatic machines protected by sweeping fundamental basic patents which are revolutionizing the basket making industry, and will give this company a monopoly of the business for all time to come—an industry of which the present and immediate and the demand for fruit baskets of all kinds is increasing at the rate of 150,000,000 baskets a year.

PROFITS ARE OVER $4,000,000 A YEAR,

The Corporation Trust Co. of New York.

THE PEOPLE'S TRUST.

The Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machine Company represents the people. Its shareholders—and therefore the people—are in a position not only to control the country's supply of fruit baskets, but also to actually regulate the growing of fruit and control its production. This makes it a monopoly of a great industry, a trust, but a trust composed not of capitalists, but of the people at large, the moderately well-to-do, who have taken advantage of its tremendous possibilities.

Hence it is justly styled THE PEOPLE'S TRUST.

SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE.

All the stock is common stock. No person has any advantage over another person. There are no bonds, no debts, no preferred stock. Every shareholder gets the same proportionate voice in the affairs of the company, and the same proportionate profit out of its earnings. If you buy only 100 shares you will make as much on your 100 as the man who buys 10,000 will make on any 100 of his holdings. No Subscription accepted for less than fifty shares.

FACTS THAT COUNT.

The actual yearly demand exceeds Two Billion Baskets.

Value at wholesale, Eleven Million Dollars.

The net profit on this volume of business last year was $1,387,000.

The baskets were all made by hand.

Each Mergenthaler-Horton Company machine does the work of twelve men.

The saving in labor by the use of the Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machines amounts to more than TWO MILLION DOLLARS ANNUALLY.

This gives earnings for the company of OVER THREE MILLION THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, OR OVER THIRTY-THREE PER CENT. ON THE ENTIRE CAPITAL ON THE PRESENT VOLUME OF BUSINESS.

The machines may be seen in operation at the Robinson Basket Company's factory, Painesville, O., where over thirty are installed; at Elmira, N. Y., at the machine shops of Emmett Horton, one of the inventors, and at Sodus, N. Y., where they are also in operation.

The practical working of the machines is now shown in every office of the Company named below.

The Company will not sell or lease its machines, but will equip and own and operate basket factories all over this country.

Why should the debut of the pretty little handmaiden of protection be delayed?

If Attorney-General Knox is not holding a good hand in the merger suit he is a good bluffer.

Every great power in Europe would like to work the United States. Still, let us be friendly.

Only people who say "those kind" and "haven't saw" have a right to say "United States is."

Britain's $1,000,000,000 war is a fearful thing. She should apply for a prominent seat in the next peace congress.

Hetty Green is seeking a town where the tax rate is low. The richest woman in America cannot afford to pay her taxes.

Gen. Lord Methuen was fortunate in his defeat by Delarey; he was wounded and captured and British sympathy is on tap.

THE CUBANS' ALTERNATIVE

President Roosevelt meant well by the Cubans. But the beet sugar men are greater than the President of the United States. That appears to be the truth of the matter.

Mr. Roosevelt made his views on the subject very clear in the beginning. He wanted justice done. He wanted to vindicate the national honor, and it is safe to say that the vast majority of the people of this country agree with him.

But the beet sugar men are more than a match for him with all his strenuosity and popular support.

The question for the Cubans to consider is simplified by the victory of the beet sugar men, which now seems assured.

The Cubans must consent to annexation or starve.

Of course, there is no coercion. The Cubans are free men. They are not obliged to accept annexation, because they can starve if they prefer; and they needn't starve because they can be annexed if they prefer.

The news that all the money needed for the prosecution of the boodle cases will be supplied through Mr. James L. Blair is a gratifying indication of an intention on the part of some citizens to back the circuit attorney to a finish.

AN ECCENTRIC SECRETARY.

Secretary Shaw of the Treasury is unique.

Hitherto the Secretary of the Treasury has been supposed to sit in a swivel chair and think great thoughts. In these, it was believed, lay his whole duty.

But Mr. Shaw gets out and hustles. He inspects the inspectors. The story, in the Sunday Post-Dispatch, of his doings on the American line pier when the St. Paul came in, and afterward on the Cunard pier when the Lucania arrived is dramatic. There is go in it. There is go in it because there was go in the hero.

It is really gratifying to know that we have a Secretary of the Treasury who cares for something beside high finance; that the present incumbent really wants to know what the folks want, what they suffer, and what he can do to serve them acceptably.

He makes a good start. The vulgar outrages perpetrated by custom house inspectors may not interest people whose interest is exclusively in high finance. But they are of great interest to the victims, who compose the bulk of the traveling public.

Secretary Shaw is eccentric, he is homely, he is plain. But he is making a good beginning and if he persists may live down these plebeian disadvantages.

The fire escape law of every city is violated. Mankind seems always to feel that nothing terrible can happen so long as they see no present sign of it. There is too much optimism as well as too much pessimism in the world.

MAKING DISEASE FASHIONABLE.

Hay fever victims long ago formed a "community of interest" by an interchange of courtesies—compliments of the season, as it were—and in some states they hold annual conventions. A year or so ago a large number of persons afflicted with locomotor ataxia organized a national society. None but those similarly afflicted are eligible.

Not to be outdone in the matter of displaying a fellow feeling, smallpox victims in two widely different sections of the country have set about ameliorating each others' condition. At Bloomfield, N. J., the inmates of the Isolation Hospital have planned a series of dances—even the members of the orchestra being sufferers from this disease. At Omaha, Neb., the smallpox patients in the Emergency Hospital have organized a golf club and have links covering 40 acres.

Why dread disease? After a while it may be that men and women cannot join a club of any pretensions unless they are victims of a certain ailment. All diseases may become fashionable, as appendicitis now is. The more fashionable and exclusive the disease, the more select and high-priced the club. Physicians will all become millionaires, and he who can boast of nothing more recherche than membership in a Fever and Ague Club will be accounted a poor man indeed.

Married schoolmistresses have been deprived of their employment because they had husbands, and now there is a district in Tennessee whose trustees have discharged a woman teacher for even going into society. Are all women dependent upon their own exertions to be driven into law, theology, typewriting or mercantile pursuits?

VACATION PLAYGROUNDS.

The public spirited St. Louis ladies who have carried on the Vacation Play Grounds movement, which was begun in 1900 under the auspices of the Wednesday Club, have made their report for 1901.

The report shows that during the summer three school play grounds were kept open, and were a joy to 1904 children, who would otherwise have had no recreation places except the streets and alleys.

It must be remembered that this means far more than the mere throwing open of school yards to children. The Vacation Play Grounds Committee has employed 12 paid teachers, all skilled in the care of children, to direct the games. An equipment of swings, sand, toys, and other things to make play interesting and instructive has been purchased. Free shower baths, trips to the parks and the country, in conjunction with the [illegible] Air Movement, and other pleasant features are a part [illegible] time happy to those unfortunate children in the crowded districts of the city who need this care and attention.

The ladies appeal for funds to carry on and broaden the work during the coming summer. They hope to be able to open more play grounds, in spots badly needing them. Last year, children had to be turned away for want of room. It should not be so in future. This movement is in keeping with the spirit of the New St. Louis. It should receive abundant support.

The citizens named by the circuit judges to serve on the local Board of Equalization are Roderick E. Rombauer, George T. Cram, Austin E. Cook and Michael J. Murphy. The board has an opportunity to do a great service to the city by a just assessment of property which would distribute the burden of taxation without favor. Under the present assessment there are gross inequalities, particularly in the assessment of franchised corporations enjoying privileges of enormous value granted by the municipal authorities. One just assessment would be of inestimable value to St. Louis.

THE BOER HEROES.

The British hope of an early peace in South Africa on British terms is shattered by the news of the defeat of Methuen with 1200 men and the loss of four guns. Three officers and 38 men were killed, five officers and 72 men were wounded and 200 men are missing. Gen. Lord Methuen and Maj. Paris were captured.

This reverse to the British arms is one of the most humiliating of the war. It is especially discouraging and humiliating in view of the efforts of Great Britain to convince the world that the war is practically over and only a few remnants of guerrilla bands maintain desultory fighting.

The British success on the anniversay of Majuba Hill was offset by the defeat and capture of 632 British troops and now the Methuen disaster puts the balance of success heavily on the Boer side.

The Boers are making a superb struggle for independence. The world has never seen a finer spectacle of heroic devotion to a desperate cause or of higher courage and fighting capacity.

Not a nation has extended them a friendly hand or given them a word of encouragement, but they have prolonged an apparently hopeless struggle against tremendous odds, until the British Empire is staggering under the burden of the war. Men of the Boer stripe deserve independence, and there is now reason to hope that they will win it.

Senor Limantour, the Secretary of the Treasury of Mexico, is likely to succeed President Diaz. What if Senor Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, were to succeed President Roosevelt?

PLAYING THE BUTLER.

Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt's new coat, which he wore while entertaining Prince Henry at dinner, is as pretty as those worn by Mr. Vanderbilt's porters on the New York Central. Indeed, it seems to have been patterned on Charley's with an idea or two derived from the butler's striking livery.

But why did not Mr. Vanderbilt receive the Prince as a gentleman welcomes his guests? It was hardly polite to the Prince, was it, thus to assume the garb, if not the duties, of a flunkey? The Prince would never think of accepting an invitation to dinner from a butler or a footman or a coachman. Why then did his host try to look like one of these functionaries?

When a gentleman receives a gentleman he ought to do it like a gentleman. Mr. Vanderbilt, who has made a reputation as a man of sense, has not improved it by this escapade. It is bad enough to compel men to wear livery. But it is extraordinary for a man voluntarily to assume it.

Somebody remembers that the late Thomas F. Bayard also refused to appear in knee breeches in British society. The big Texan therefore has a good precedent, and has no need to refer to his physical inadaptation to the costume he rejected.

Mr. Lyttleton, who is to succeed Lord Pauncefote as British ambassador to the United States, is a crack golf and tennis player. If he is also an expert in ping-pong, there is every reason to expect a brilliant career in Washington.

Just A Minute WITH THE POST-DISPATCH POET AND PHILOSOPHER.

AN IMITATION OF BYRON.

CANTO CCLXXX.
MDXXXVIII.

Pray, what is life? A swiftly melting taper,
A thing of many moods, of certain senses
And more uncertain joys; a mist, a vapor,
Of hues as various as are the lenses
Through which they're viewed; a while to cut a caper
Before high heaven; a mass of vain pretenses,
Of which no part is good or evil wholly,
Though apt to breed reflections melancholy.

MDXXXIX.

Yet in it I have found a deal of pleasure,
In spite of those who have attacked my song—
This epic, which I've written at my leisure
To help a wicked, erring world along.
"My faith in black's no greater than in azure,"
As Pulci on occasion said or sung,
And I have neither time nor wish to quarrel
With those who call my tale, or his, immoral.

MDXL.

Ambassador am I to all humanity
From Wisdom's court. I only preach to men
What sages know—that all in life is vanity,
And every word of mouth or touch of pen
A mere reflection of the sad inanity
Of all their fancies; and I say again
The scene I paint is just as black as Dante's;
Wherefore I laugh with Rabelais and Cervantes.

MDXLI.

Now, snarl, ye dogs! But no, I do but flatter
Ye when I call ye dogs! For they are wise—
Too wise in bootless argument to batter
Their heads against a wall, or vent their cries
In pleadings for a taste of life's sweet attar,
And dwell in fear of two eternities,
Each as unknowable as is the other.
About such things their brains they never bother.

MDXLII.

But men are slaves, and though I seek to free 'em
From Custom's bondage, they detest, malign me,
Though I would peal for them a glad Te Deum,
And gladly would to God knows what consign me.
If they could see themselves as others see 'em,
(Which heaven forbid!) they would not thus define me,
Nor so defame—at least I'd not expect it.
But hold! My hero I have quite neglected.

CLEVER LITTLE STORIES.

Mortimer Menpes in his notable work on Japan tells a story of the great Japanese artist, Kiyosai, which was related to him by an English resident of the country: "A friend of his had prepared four magnificent sliding panels covered with the finest silk and had given them to the painter, with the request that he would execute some of his masterpieces on them for him. For eight or nine years Kiyosai had kept those panels and they still remained bare; but great masters are always erratic and the would-be purchaser never gave up hope. One day, however, he burst in upon my friend with the terrible intelligence that Kiyosai was dead drunk and ruined his panels. "He's smashing away at them on the floor and he is simply crawling over them,' he said in a towering rage. My friend agreed to go around with him to Kiyosai's house to try if possible to stop the outrage. When they arrived they found the master in a high state of fever and looking more like a wild animal than a human being, with his tusk-like teeth and his poor, pitted face, sweeping and hacking about all over the silken panels. As they entered Kiyosai left the room, leaving behind him the panels scattered irregularly over the floor, but each one smothered with work. 'Look, here,' said my friend very generously, 'it was I who introduced Kiyoasi to you and it was I who suggested his painting these doors; therefore it is only fair that I should relieve you of them and find you a new set, which I will willingly do." But the owner of the panels, shrewdly guessing that my friend had not made this generous offer without some good reason, changed his mind and said that he could on no account receive so costly a gift. He kept them and wisely, too, for those four panels are now universally considered as some of Kioyasi's greatest masterpieces."

While he was in England Mark Twain says his head was once taxed as gas works. He wrote Queen Victoria a friendly letter of protest, saying: "I don't know you, but I've met your son. He was at the head of a procession in the Strand and I was on a bus." Years afterward he met the Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII, at Homburg. They had a long walk and talk together. When bidding him good-by the prince said: "I am glad to have met you again." This remark troubled Twain, who feared that he had been mistaken for someone else. He communicated this suspicion to the prince, who replied: "Why don't you remember when you met me in the Strand and I was at the head of a procession and you were on a bus?"

An eastern manufacturer of bicycles, being compelled to go away on a business trip about the time an interesting domestic event was expected, left orders for the nurse to wire him results according to the following formula: If a boy, "Gentleman's safety arrived." If a girl, "Lady's safety arrived." The father's state of mind may be imagined when, a few days later, he received a telegram containing the one word: "Tandem."

Some men seem to think it is a virtue not to commit crime.

Take care of the cook and the other servants will take care of themselves.

The ambitious woman has to have a butler's pantry, if it is only a cracker box in a corner of the kitchen.

PUZZLES AND THEIR SOLUTION

Range of 20-Mile Cannon.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I am happy to see so many able to correctly answer the stick problem, namely 7½ feet from the front end of the handspike.

As I read the carrying 100 stones problem my numbskull said, add two ciphers to 101 for the number of yards the carrier must walk.

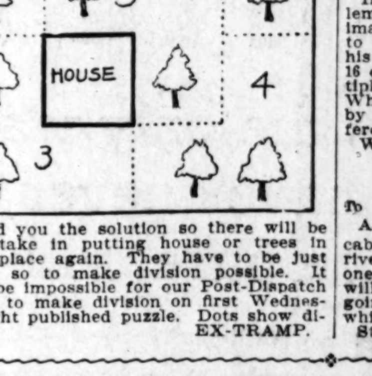

The cannon on the train and 16 cents worth of eggs are not problems, as the statements are not complete, but who will answer this:

Uncle Sam has a cannon that will send a shot 21 miles. To reach that distance it ascends 5 miles high. How far, through space, does the shot travel? Do not all answer at once. G. E. DOLTON.

Field and Tree Puzzle.

Kindly publish this solution to my field and tree puzzle. In the drawing you made of it the house was just in wrong place, in Wednesday last's Post-Dispatch.

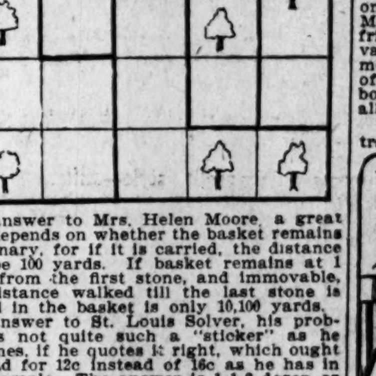

I send you the solution so there will be no mistake in putting house or trees in wrong place again. They have to be just exactly so to make division possible. It would be impossible for our Post-Dispatch readers to make division on first Wednesday night published puzzle. Dots show divisions. EX-TRAMP.

Another Solution.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Kindly publish this solution to Ex-Tramp's field and tree puzzle: Assuming the field to be composed of 25 units, each portion of 5 units as shown:

In answer to Mrs. Helen Moore, a great deal depends on whether the basket remains stationary, for if it is carried, the distance will be 100 yards. If basket remains at 1 yard from the first stone, and immovable, the distance walked till the last stone is placed in the basket is only 10,100 yards.

In answer to St. Louis Solver, his problem is not quite such a "sticker" as he imagines, if he quotes it right, which ought to read for 12c instead of 16c as he has in his example. The answer is 1 1-3 dozen or 16 eggs. Proof: 12 1 1-3s equals 12 1s multiplied by ¾ equals 36-4 equals 9c per dozen. When 2 more 12 1½s equals 12 1s multiplied by 2-3 equals 24-3 equals 8c per dozen. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(This column is open to everybody who has a complaint to make, a grievance to ventilate, information to give or a subject of general interest to discuss, or a public service to acknowledge, and who can put the idea into less than 100 words. Letters from persons seeking employment cannot be given place in this column. All letters must be accompanied by address and signature.)

A Dangerous Crossing.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

At the Tower Grove crossing, where the Missouri Pacific and Frisco railways cross the street car tracks the watchman has been taken off and the bars that used to act as a warning to approaching teams and street cars are no longer used. I am told that this change has been made because the railways found the watchman and gate system expensive. For a while the transit company employed a watchman on its own account, but it appears that the management got tired of this, too, and now there is nohing to prevent wrecks except the rule that conductors of cars run ahead and see if a train is coming.

It is only a question of time when we shall hear of a terrible wreck at this spot. The railways ought to be compelled to cross underground or overhead, but until this is done they should be obliged to obey the law in regard to watchmen and bars. The lives of citizens must not be put in the balance against expense account. CITIZEN.

Fresh Air Marvels.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

A Mr. McDonald, a citizen of St. Louis, had pneumonia the fourth time. One evening the doctor called and he told McDonald's wife that he would likely die before morning. When the doctor had gone McDonald got very short of breath, the room being warm and no fresh air. He ordered all the windows to be opened, and they were left open all night. The next morning when the doctor called he was out of danger, to the surprise of the doctor.

A boy 6 years old, McDonald said, who was given up to die, was put in blankets with head out of the window in cold air and was saved the same way. I myself stopped a constant cough by opening the window wide. Why are we so much afraid of fresh air, in sickness and health?

A Bachelor's Advice.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Topaz, as it appears, has discovered some of the troubles of married life. I am a happy bachelor, but from a just consideration of the matrimonial oath I see nothing to cause either of the contracting parties to cut "his or her" throat for the other. The world isn't going to let one off any cheaper than it has to. My advice is to use your enemies better than they use you; your friends likewise.

To her who signs "One That Is Lonesome" let me say, you have proven yourself to be of the kind that make noble wives and mothers, and though you be heartbroken and lonesome you have nothing to regret. A true moral life, though lonesome, is far more to be cherished than all the gayeties and riches that could be bestowed upon any human being, and if your husband did not appreciate pure womanhood enough to remain home with you and help to make home what it ought to be; I say you are better off without him.

Literature for Sick Persons.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Several evenings ago I noticed a letter in this column relating to the distribution of magazines, newspapers and other literature to the hospitals and charitable institutions, a most laudable project and worthy of anyone's co-operation, having for its object the entertainment and education of the poor and suffering, it will doubtless appeal to all.

Having mislaid the issue in which the article appeared I would ask the correspondent to let me hear from him, with a view to pushing it to a successful end. We should help one another in life and how better can we do this than in just such small things as this?

A Brilliant Meteor.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Last night at 9:43 p. m. a brilliant meteor passed across the heavens from the northwest to the southeast, seeming to stop in its journey overhead for at least 20 seconds, then continuing in its course. Kindly publish this. A. P. BAIER.

Richmond Theater Fire.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Dec. 16, 1811 was a night long to be remembered in the annals of theatrical history. This fire broke out during the performance and in a few moments the building was a sheet of flames.

The doors opened inward and the audience rushed for the doors to escape, but those behind crowded those before them against the doors, preventing them from being opened. The scene was frightful. Some jumped from the windows to escape, while others, who were jammed at the doors, were roasted to death. No less than 70 persons lost their lives, among them the governor of the state. A memorial church now occupies the site of this appalling disaster. UNION NO. 2.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Replying to question in last night's paper as to when the old Richmond Theater was burned, I beg to state it was burned Dec. 26, 1811. R. A. MARTIN.

Cruelty to Animals Is Criminal.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I noticed a letter in your last evening's paper relative to the brutality of the dog catcher, and I hope it will open the eyes of the people to the fact that we behave more like savages in our treatment of dumb animals than Christians. Just see how horses are overloaded and then beaten along the public streets every day, and no one ever gives it a thought that it is a crime. [illegible]

FLAT HUNTING

"There is no use putting it off any longer; we must move," said the head of the house, bringing his fist down on the table. Every member of the Jones family looked up, startled. This particular degree of emphasis had not been given the subject when brought up for discussion on previous occasions.

"We Must Move."

"Where to?" ventured his wife.

"Not out of the city," put in Marion pleadingly. She is a high school girl.

"Suburban trains are a nuisance in this weather," remarked the son and heir. He had just entered a law office.

"For goodness' sake, don't move where we shall be always on those trains that break down and kill people!" exclaimed Aunt Patience.

"I don't care where we move to!" roared the head of the house above the babel of tongues, "just so we lessen the financial strain. The family expenses have got to be cut. It's a job to look up flats and some one with more time than I must undertake the hunting."

Silence reigned. Toast and coffee held full sway till each member of the family went about the daily duties.

That night as they reassembled at the dinner table a look of suppressed excitement was in every face.

"Well, father," said the law student,

"Consternation was pictured on four faces."

speaking up briskly. "I took a run out on the south side today and found just the thing—an ideal flat, with steam, janitor service, everything complete."

"But it can't compare, I'm sure, with the one I found on the north side," broke in Marion, "and next door to my dearest friend. It's all newly papered and the floors varnished and everything and it is $3 a month less than we are paying, and several of the girls in my class live in that neighborhood. I was so sure it would suit you all that I—"

"And have us killed on those elevated trains foggy mornings," interrupted Aunt Patience, in a higher key. "I just knew you would do some such thing if I didn't check the move, so I went out to look for something within walking distance and I found a flat that will answer every purpose, in reach of the church, Marion's school and the business center. The rent is less than we are paying and we can save all the car fare, too. I knew you would all agree with me, so I—"

"And Have Us Killed!"

"But," put in the maternal side of the house, who had been trying vainly to make herself heard, "Mrs. Devore called today. She is going to move and her flat will be vacant. I always wanted that flat and as it suited me so well and you all seemed too busy to look up anything, I thought I'd secure it before any one else and I—"

"I am surprised to discover so much ambition in this household," exclaimed the head of it, "and I regret that all your labor should be wasted; but the fact is that I talked with our landlord today and he has agreed to make a reduction in the present rent. This will make it unnecessary to change our location and I have signed a lease for another year. We will pay $3 a month less and also save the moving expenses, to say nothing about the bother of tearing things up and settling somewhere else."

Consternation was pictured on four faces for a moment, then the disciple of Blackstone found his voice.

"Well, I'm out just $25," he said. "I paid one month's rent, amounting to that. You can count me out hereafter when it comes to house hunting."

"And I made a deposit of $5 on the flat I selected," gasped Marion. "I was so sure it would suit that I stepped into Nellie Jackson's, next door, and borrowed the money. Nell will be so disappointed to find we aren't going to move there."

"And I paid $10 on mine," moaned Aunt Patience.

"And I paid the agent of the Devore flat $6," wailed Mr. Jones' better half. "I was so sure, and the man said it was the usual thing."

"As I figure it out," said the legal branch of the family, after a little mental arithmetic, "we are $46 out and will save $36 by staying here. There seems to be a lack of system in the sudden ambition to practice economy and avoid the dangers of transportation conveniences."

"I'm thankful it was no worse," sighed the head of the household, as he buried himself in the evening paper.—Chicago News.

THE FUNNY FILIPINO CHILDREN.

Writing from the Island of Samar, Mr. Elmer Latson, a Kansas who went to the Philippines to teach school, tells some amusing stories of Filipino children. He says that when the boys and girls come come into the schoolhouse, the boys have on coats and trousers and the girls are dressed in quite a proper way. But as soon as they are dismissed, they shed a portion of their clothing and go about the town in scant apparel. If American ladies had a custom of going about the streets in decollete and wore high-necked dresses in the ballroom, the Philippines style would have its parallel. One day in school, Mr. Latson asked his pupils to construct an English sentence having the word "go" in it. One boy gravely answered, "I shall go to hell." Another said: "I shall go to the blessed land of the free." Still another answered: "I will drink a bol o ber." The lad who proposed to drink a bottle of beer had no doubt been impressed by American customs but there is something of a shock in the reply made by the second boy when he was asked to locate the "Blessed land of the free." "It is the cemetario," he responded, showing that the notion of peace this side of the grave has been [illegible]

CARRIAGES ... THE COLUMBUS CARRIAGE ... St. Louis, Mo. ...

Two Wives in One Day.

Jasper Elless was divorced from Mary Elless in the East St. Louis City Court Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and was married at 4 o'clock by Justice Boyne to Mrs. Mary Christ. Elless said that he was a carpenter, and that he was contracting his third marriage. He charged his former wife with desertion after 15 years of married life, and the decree was granted by default. He said that he and his bride lived in East St. Louis.

The Secret

Of womanly health would be esteemed as priceless by thousands of suffering women. Each month sees them moaning in a darkened room. At the best they endure pain every day. At the worst the pain becomes torment.

The secret of womanly health is in keeping the womanly organism in a perfectly healthy state. This can be done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, dries debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Women suffering from chronic forms of disease are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There is nothing else "just as good" for womanly ailments.

"I suffered for more than ten years with female weakness of very bad form," writes Mrs. D. Marwood, of Treherne, Macdonald Co., Manitoba. "I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' with good results. I am able to do all my own work now. I do not know how to thank you enough for the kind advice you have sent me by letter. Your remedies did for me more than all other doctor's medicines, and I have taken lots of them."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.

GREATER EAST ST. LOUIS IS PROPOSED

DENVERSIDE AND ALTA SITA DESIRE TO BE ANNEXED.

ELECTION SET FOR APRIL 1

Winstanley Park May Also Be Added to East Side Municipality.

The proposition to add to the city of East St. Louis the suburbs of Denverside and Alta Sita will be placed before the voters at the election to be held April 1. Annexation is favored almost unanimously by the residents of the two suburbs.

The East St. Louis City Council Monday night authorized the submission of the question to the voters at the April election. At the same time the proposal to annex Winstanley Park will be voted on.

Victory for both the annexation propositions would mean a greater East St. Louis. To this 14 miles of square territory would be added nearly six square miles. The population of Winsanley Park is 1500 and the combined population of Denverside and Alta Sita about 600.

SLEUTH TROUSERS STOLEN

Detective Gordon, Detailed to Attend Mass, Had to Borrow a Nether Garment.

Detective Andrew Jackson Gordon, a colored sleuth on Chief Desmond's staff, attended mass at St. Elizabeth's church Sunday morning clad in a pair of truosers borrowed from Father Speich, the parish priest, his own trousers having been stolen during the night by a burglar.

Detective Gordon is tall and slender, while Father Speich is short and stout. The borrowed trousers fit so poorly that Gordon, after attending early morning mass as a matter of duty, being detailed to be present by the chief, slunk homeward through the alleys and side streets.

In order to be near St. Elizabeth's church in the morning, Gordon slept Saturday night at 714 North Sixteenth street. ... burglars, the detective flung his trousers, containing $4.60, his keys, star, revolver and notebook, across a chair.

The burglar carried away the trousers and contents, none of which have been recovered.

When Gordon, like Abou Ben Adhem, awoke from a deep dream of peace, he discivered that in order to fulfill his assignment he must beg or borrow, and the parish priest came to his rescue.

Gordon made an official report of the robbery, which was suppressed until Tuesday.

GRAND LEADERS' GALA DAY.

Annual Spring Opening Crowded This Headquarters for Novelties.

The Grand-Leader is in gala attire for its annual spring opening. All day Monday the store was thronged with eager shoppers. The millinery department, greatly enlarged, proved a most attractive place.

A large number of pattern hats for dress and street wear are shown here, ranging in prices from $1.50 to $25.

A "Colonial" hat from Virot is shown here. This is made with novelty Tuscan straw brim and crown of real lace draped soft and falling to the back gracefully over the hair. It is confined with strings of pearls, caught with cabochons of pearl and Tuscan on either side of the back. The "Du Barry" is a graceful creation from Esther Meyer; this is in pale blue Yeddo and chrysanthemum braids, with drape of baby blue meline, trimmed with a wreath of forget-me-nots and tiny pink roses and foliage, the wreath set in zigzag, caught at the crown and edge of brim.

The "Marquis" hat, from Maison Lewis, a creation in black and white, trimmed with trailing wreath of small pink faded roses and green leaves, an immense bunch of green buds falling over the hair. The buds are tied with a natty pink ribbon bow. A very jaunty turban, from Camille Rogers, is of crushed roses and exquisite shirred lace, ottoman ribbon and pearl cabochons. The leaf hat is a new effect in turbans.

The cloaks and suits are here in broadcloth, Venetian etamine, crepe de chine, taffetas, net and laces. The Milady Pompadour silk gown is in pastel shade. The skirt, made with the new clinging effect, has a 12-inch flounce of Irish crochet lace falling over chiffon pleatings of blended pastel shades. The draped waist is trimmed with the Irish lace and has a yoke cut in one piece, giving the long shoulder effect, of fine d'aloncon lace. This is ornamented by pearl and irridescent beads and black and green meline intertwined through the front with strings of pearl beads.

NEW PRESIDENT FOR BRAZIL.

Dr. Rodriguez Alves, a Distinguished Statesman, Is Honored.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Senor A. Fontoura Xavier, Brazilian consul-general in this city, has received a private cable dispatch from Rio Janeiro announcing the election of Dr. Francisco de Paula Rodrigues Alves as president of Brazil.

Dr. Rodrigues Alves for many years has been a conspicuous figure in the politics of Brazil. He is a native of the state of Sao Paulo and is now governor of that progressive and rich state. He resigned a federal senatorship to become governor.

As a financier, it is said by his friends, that Dr. Alves has no superior in South America. His ability was recognized by President Peixoto, who appointed him minister of finance in his cabinet. President Moraes retained him in that place.

The president-elect is a lawyer and has occupied a leading place at the bar. He has been elected as the candidate of the Republican party, and his victory is considered a great triumph because of the high standing and promise of his defeated opponent, Dr. Ubaldino do Amaral.

Dr. Roderigues Alves will be inaugurated Nov. 15, the anniversary of the proclamation of Brazil's independence. The term of office is four years.

TENNESSEE DERBY TO BE A RECORD BREAKER THIS YEAR

Not Since First of These Races in 1884 Has List of Eligibles Shown Such Merit—Abe Frank, Now Favorite, May Not Be Entered.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 11.—Since the son of the immortal Ten Broeck—Ten Strike—won the first Tennessee Derby in 1884, there has never been more interest in that race than there is just now. In glancing over the eligibles the reason becomes obvious.

In the first place the animals engaged are high class, giving assurances of a fine contest, and in the next place wealthy and influential citizens of Tennessee own these animals and a fair race is bound to result.

Almost as much interest is taken in the Montgomery Handicap as in the Derby.

Waring still holds the place of honor in the Montgomery and is being backed into steady favoritism. In the winter book of Ullman & Co. at Hot Springs he opened at 10 to 1 but he is now held at 8 to 1. His winning is merely a question of his ability to train on as he undoubtedly outclasses his field.

The eligibles to the Tennessee derby, which will be held in April, are Abe Frank, Herodiade, Uncle George, Ed Austin, Red Hook, Harry New, Nuggett, Brissac, H. L. Coleman, Charles W. Meyer, Dave Sommers, Waswift, Burnett Wallace, Major Tenny, Larry Young, Sulerman, Crimean, Buccleuth, Runnels, Wyeth, Crescent City, Eva G., Ravensbury, Dawfyd, Badger, Dr. Lovejoy, Duke of Connaught, Lou Woods, I. Samelson, Lydmar, Red and Green and Minor Bronaugh. On previous form there seems to be only four horses in this lot that have any chance of capturing the Tennessee derby, Abe Frank, Charles W. Meyer, Runnels and Buccleuth. It is almost a certainty that the owner of Runnels will not send his horse to Memphis to contest for this prize.

Abe Frank May Not Be Sent.

He will be reserved for the far more valuable event of the American Derby. It is also doubtful whether George Bennett will send his crack Abe Frank after this event, as he has three other horses eligible, Herodiade, Uncle George and Ed Austin, either of which stands a fair chance to annex the race. If, however, Abe Frank is started he will be a strong favorite and should win.

Outside of Runnels there seems to be nothing in the race to make the son of Hanover extend himself, but the history of the event is against favorites, and many things may happen between now and the date of the race that may alter present conditions and make the affair an open one for all contenders.

A heavy track may militate against the chances of the favorite, and some long shot, friendless now, may carry away the prize. In 1894 a horse called Jamboree won at 100 to 1, and surprised everybody. This element of uncertainty is what makes the game so fascinating, and which, in fact, makes racing popular and possible.

The Tennessee Derby was inaugurated in 1884, the same year that the American Derby was started. For a few years it was discontinued, but popular clamor caused it to be revived and it is now considered one of the most coveted prizes in the Southern racing circuit. It will be run this year the first week in April.

Outlook for Fillies Is Not Promising.

It is worthy of note that only one horse of the female sex has ever won the Tennessee, May Hempstead, in 1898. The outlook for a filly this year is not very promising.

Almost all the winners of the Tennessee Derby have gone to the happy hunting grounds of that quadruped, and, with the exceptions of Lieber Karl, May Hempstead and Royal Victor, their names are even forgotten.

The following is the order in which this classic was won since its inception in 1884: Ten Strike, Joe Cotton, Jim Gray, Robespierre, Vallera, Tom Elliott, Calhoun, Jamboree, Fandango, Berclair, Lieber Karl, May Hempstead, Florizar and Royal Victor.

The regulation Derby distance is a mile and a half, but this is only a mile and an eighth.

Since the beginning of the year weather conditions have been most unfavorable for training, and the 2-year-olds especially are in a backward state in that respect. In the last few days, however, balmy breezes have come up from the South, the sun has been shining and the stables are again in a state of activity getting their charges ready for the fray.

Information comes by way of Nashville that that astute horseman, T. P. Hayes, has a strong card up his sleeve for the Memphis affair. He won it last year with Royal Victor, and it is the general consensus of opinion among horsemen at Cumberland Park that he will win it this year with Buccleuth.

Buccleuth was not raced last year until the fall, and then gave evidence of being a smart colt. He raced with some success at Douglas Park, Louisville, but he had no Abe Frank to contend against. However, he is well bred, being by the great imported sire Oddfellow, and outside of Abe Frank he stands as good a chance as any of the other eligibles.

Mrs. T. C. McDowell, whose husband has charge of W. K. Vanderbilt's string, has given names to the sextet of youngsters that the New York millionaire has quartered here. They are Sabot by Halma-Clatterfeet.

Thoughtless by Ornament-Happy Sally II.

Anklet by Ornament-Maggie Gray.

Scintillant by Ornament-Alarming.

Kentish Shrew by Ornament-Maid of Kent II.

Widow's Mite by Ornament-Charity.

As will be observed they are all royally bred, Ornament being considered one of the greatest horses in the country in his day, and Halma won the Kentucky Derby.

If these two-year-olds show up well in their preliminary struggles on the turf, it is probable that their owner will become a patron of racing in Tennessee, and give an impetus to the game in that state which it needs.

Aladdin May Run in Arkansas Derby.

It is rumored that Bennett's Aladdin might be sent to Little Rock to run in the Arkansas Derby, which will be decided March 24. Aladdin is a colt of good caliber, and unless McChesney is sent to Little Rock also, about which there has been some gossip, he should win that event. He can travel in any kind of going, and as a two-year-old showed his liking for a distance.

Time was, and that not long ago, when Louisville was the great rendezvous for preparing horses for the spring racing season. Montgomery Park has supplanted Churchill Downs as a training resort, although there is a glamor around the Kentucky Derby track that Memphis never knew. Some of the most prominent stables in the West are now at Montgomery Park, including Pat Dunne, Hildreth, Schorr, McDowell, O'Brien and several American Derby candidates are receiving their preparations there. The meeting commences March 31 and ends April 23.

Some of the events to be contested for are the Inaugural, the Montgomery Handicap, the Tennessee Club, Gaston Hotel Stakes, Montgomery Handicap, Consolation, the Ardelle Stakes, the Tennessee Derby, Country Club Handicap and the Tennessee Brewing Co. Stakes.

The outlook for the Memphis race meeting was never brighter. The stakes have all filled well, the best horses in the West and South will compete and with competent officials it is bound to be a financial success as well as a triumph of sport.

GREEN B. MORRIS HOPES TO WIN THE AMERICAN DERBY WITH THIS COLT

HOMESTEAD.

A 3-year-old bay colt by Candlemas—Sweet Home, that with Sombrero and Old England has helped make the Morris stable the winning one at Frisco. Homestead is quoted at 30 to 1 in the future bet ting on the big derby.

ENTRIES COMING IN FOR POST-DISPATCH LEAGUES

Public and Parochial School Baseball Organizations Open Their Entry Lists for the Second Season—What Last Year's Leagues Accomplished.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC AND PAROCHIAL SCHOOL BOYS

Now is the time to send in your entries to the Post-Dispatch Public and Parochial School Baseball Leagues, which are to be reorganized for the season of 1902. It is desirable that the season should start with the professional baseball season and close with the end of the regular school term. To accomplish so much in such a short space of time it will be necessary to complete all preliminary arrangements as early as possible. The date of closing of the entry lists will be announced later. The polls are open for entries at the present time.

The second season of the Post-Dispatch Public and Parochial School baseball leagues starts Tuesday with the receipt by the sporting editor of three entries, one for the Parochial League and two for the Public School organization.

The schools entered are: St. Patrick's, Parochial League; Blow and Webster schools, Public School League.

The captain of the Blow School team writes to know if any outsider will be allowed to play on any of the school teams.

It must be distinctly understood that none but students of the school a team represents will be permitted to contest. There were some disqualifications on this ground last season and an endeavor will be made to prevent a recurrence of the practice of playing "ringers."

A Bit of History Concerning the Leagues.

The Post-Dispatch Public and Parochial School Baseball League, which concluded a successful season in 1901, and which are to be revived this spring, are peculiar to the school systems of St. Louis. No other city in the world can boast of similar organizations, or at least of any approaching the magnitude attained by the two local leagues last year.

A few of the grammar schools of other cities may have organized isolated teams and played hap-hazard games; but in no cities have the grammar and parish schools ventured as far as organization of leagues, arranged seasons, framed rules, appointed governing bodies and completed schedules of 147 games. That is what the local leagues accomplished.

The leagues are a distinctive feature of the city of St. Louis and as such should be perpetuated.

Last season's organizations had a success that, in view of several drawbacks, is extraordinary. Like Aladdin's palace, they arose almost in a night. Within three weeks after the time of the first announcement that a public school league would be formed a full-fledged organization of 47 teams, divided into seven subleagues, had been successfully launched, a schedule arranged, under supervision of a High School committee, and the first games played.

From that time on little trouble developed, the schedule working out smoothly to June 20, when the season came to an end after two months of playing.

Think of it! Forty-seven teams in one league! And then there came the parochial organization, requesting that the Post-Dispatch conduct a parish school league. This was done, and with less than two weeks in which to arrange matters a 16-club league played out a season.

Crowds Witnessed Each Game.

The progress of the clubs as the season advanced attracted great interest. Crowds witnessed each game and not less than 40,000 persons were interested in the result. Counting 1000 pupils to each school, most of them interested in the fortunes of a particular club, there were 47,000 watching the public school contests alone. To say nothing of the teachers, fathers, mothers and relatives who had their eyes on the daily accounts. This season the organizations will be improved wherever it is possible and made a monument to the energy and progressiveness of St. Louis public school children.

Remember, boys, it's the only thing of its kind in the world—help to make it the best possible.

CONSTITUTION TO BE RACED AGAIN

Owners Think New Boat Is Not Inferior to the Columbia.

NEW YORK, March 11.—There is much reason to believe, say the Herald, that the yacht Constitution will be placed in commission the coming season. The five New York Yacht Club members who built the yacht are not satisfied that it is inferior to Columbia, but, on the contrary, hope to demonstrate that she is the best of the cutters for cup defense ever turned out by the Herreshoffs. Mr. August Belmont is the head of the syndicate owning the Constitution, and he has engaged Capt. Barr, who sailed Columbia in her America's cup races, with the understanding that he shall take charge of his 70-footers, the Mineola, or the Constitution, as required.

If Constitution is put in commission it will be with the object of turning it up, with a view to defending the Americas cup in 1903.

PUGILISTIC GOSSIP

BY J. E. WRAY.

Our American pugilists who have been garnering laurels in England at the expense of alleged British champions are laboring unfortunately in their endeavors to keep up their reputations for being world-beaters. Perhaps it might better be said that they are, unfortunately, laboring; for it certainly seems that they had best rest upon their foreign laurels and not go up against any of the ambitious, aggressive home talent.

Harry Harris, a self-announced featherweight champion, who came home with a chest like a pouter pigeon, and foolishly, with a chip on his shoulder, realized this phase of the situation after a brief but memorable experience with one hard-headed, hard-fisted, old-timer, Austin Rice.

The immediate consequence of the engagement between these two was a conclusion on the part of Harris to retire to the stage managing business—it is too bad for his pugilistic ambition that he did not discover his histrionic abilities before the catastrophe happened.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, who has been diligently advertised by a salaried hornblower and several press agents, has returned and is making matches—judiciously, however. He, or his manager, is taking no chances, as can be seen from a note from Martin Julian to Joe Macias. Julian is conducting a jabbing dispensary at Philadelphia and wrote Macias respecting a match between O'Brien and Kid Carter, the latter being one of Macias' stable. Carter was willing, but when it came to the O'Brien end accepting, Martin Julian's epistolary comment announced that the Philadelphia man "was looking for 'marks' only."

That being the case, Philadelphia O'Brien figures little better than a "mark" himself, for one of the first of that class with whom he tied up, handed him a beautiful assortment last night.

Charley McKeever was the fighter in question and in his role as mark astounded Mr. O'Brien and an audience at Philadelphia. In the first round he was so ungentlemanly as to slam his glove with all his force right into the teeth of Mr. O'Brien and the latter went down to see if he had lost any. He stayed down for nine seconds, but managed to get into the game again.

Fight reports say that O'Brien hardly had the fight won by a champion's margin.

From the experiences of Harris and O'Brien, the American pugilists are doubtless wondering "if there are any more abroad like you?"

M'COY IN FRANCE.

McCoy will invade Gaul this spring, in fact has already done so, with a view to teaching the youth of France the mysteries and advantages of the game, "la boxe."

McCoy's motive is philanthropic, if financial. He has been horrified to learn of the desperate duels with swords and pistols that take place when honor is wounded in France and would save blood letting by introducing the American and English methods of settling arguments that are too deep for words.

McCoy has rented a big gymnasium in the Champs Elysees and will be ready for business shortly. Concerning his progress he says:

"I am so far advanced in my calling that I am going to be a professor. When a man has fought 269 battles, losing only three, he is entitled to a degree in the University of Pugilism. My coming here is a part of the American invasion. We can't let Schwab and Morgan do all the invading. I can't buy up the monopoly of boxing. Mine will be a voluntary trust. I shall let in all who wish to learn to box. I am the first American to teach boxing in France, and it will be worth more to France than the commercial colleges that the government intends establishing in the United States. If ever France hopes to obtain revenge for Metz, young Frenchmen must learn how to box. I'll make strenuous men of them. Count Castellane will be one of my pupils."

Whether Monsieur Crapaud will surrender his Gallic prejudices at the behest of Mr. McCoy remains to be seen. The announcement that Count Castellane will go into the sport may ruin it.

CRESCENTS VICTORS OVER CENTURYS

Won Four Games Out of Five on the Acme Alleys.

On the Acme alleys Monday night the Crescents and Centurys played a match at cocked hat. The former won by 4 to 1. The winners totaled 1370 while the losers recorded only 1226. Scholl played a fine game for the winners, averaging a flat 64. W. Bick was the best of the losers, averaging 63 1-5.

In the North End League the Columbias and Magazines had a set-to Monday night and the former won the odd game by 3 to 2. The team averages were low. Stifel, with an average of 45 3-5, was high for the winners, while Crocker topped the losers.

On the Royal alleys Monday night the Office and Lithos of the Woodward & Tiernan League clashed, the former winning by 3 to 2. Woodward was much the best of the winners, with Wilson his best supporter. Beekman and Martin were tied for first place with the Lithos.

Arts and Binderys of the Woodward & Tiernan League clashed on the Royal alleys Monday night, the former winning by a score of 4 to 1. Gallagher and Sanftleben were the high men for the Arts, while Schnitz and Finke excelled for the Binderys.

On the Crescent alleys Monday night the Forrests and Henriettas of the Jobbers' League had a bout, the Forrests winning handily by 4 to 1. Webb led the winners with an average of 46 1-5, with Bodine second. Wilson of the losers had an average of 47 and was much the best of the Henriettas.

In the Miller-Flaven League the Office and Typos had a set-to Monday night. The former won by 4 to 1, but the game was a slow one, the team averages being considerably under 40.

Dubrouillett and Fisher and Weber and Fath were the leading players.

O'BRIEN FINISHED STRONG

He Punished McKeever, After Being Nearly Knocked Out in the First Round at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 11.—Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, the hero of many victories over English pugilists, was within an ace of being put out in less than one round by Charley McKeever in a six-round affair before the Washington Sporting Club here last night.

During a mixup in the opening interval McKeever got in a hard right to the jaw of O'Brien, sending him to the canvas for the count. He took the full time. He stayed the round out and in the interval recovered.

After that he fought hard, but his opponent was battling valiantly and stayed the limit. McKeever, however, was badly punished in the last five rounds. This was the first meeting of the men since their return from London, where O'Brien got a decision on a foul. No decisions are rendered in Philadelphia.

DELAY IN SPALDING CASE

Attorneys Ask a Further Postponement and Arguments May Go Over.

NEW YORK, March 11.—A. G. Spalding's demurrer to the injunction of Andrew Freedman in the National League baseball case, after two postponements, is due to come up for trial today before Justice Truax of the Supreme Court.

De Lancey Nicoll, counsel for Freedman, has secured an agreement for postponement from Tuesday morning until Tuesday afternoon. It is believed that the case will go over until tomorrow.

Maggioli Won Billiard Match.

Frank Maggioli won the final game of the series of matches between him and Frank Day at the Royal Monday night. The game was 300 points 14-inch balk line. Maggioli made a high run of 47 and Day 37. The final score was:

Maggioli—Total, 300; high run, 47; average, 9 3-33.

Day—Total, 191, high run, 37; average, 5 26-33.

YANKEE PUGS TO FIGHT IN ENGLAND

Sharkey and Ruhlin Accept National Club's Offer to Box Abroad.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Tom Sharkey and Gus Ruhlin have reached an agreement with representatives of the National Sporting Club of London, now here, to appear at that club during coronation week and meet any heavy-weights that the organization may select.

Sharkey will begin training at once. Ruhlin is in fine fettle, being in daily practice with Fitzsimmons. It is said that the latter and Jeffries may be the men chosen by the club to meet Sharkey and Ruhlin, for both have been invited abroad.

Frank Erne, Joe Wolcott and Tommy Ryan are included in the list of American pugilists who have accepted the National club's invitation to appear in London.

WORLD'S FAIRS WON EASILY.

Whitewashed the Tigers in a Match on the Courthouse Alleys.

On the Courthouse alleys Monday night the World's Fairs and Tigers had a contest at tenpins. The latter team was whitewashed, losing three consecutive games. Voerster played a strong game and averaged 192. Witter, with 175, excelled for the Tigers.

Olympics and Diels had a one-sided tenpin match on the Courthouse alleys Monday, the latter winning all three games played. Pflueger was away out in front for the Diels, followed by Gerbe. Engle headed the losing aggregation, with Schneider next. The winners averaged 168 and the losers 144.

On the Grand alleys Monday night the Diel Juniors blanked the Pinochles by a score of 3 to 0. Ricker of the winners played well, averaging 182, and Loeb gave him the best assistance. Stueve was much the best of the losers, with an average of 166 1-3.

DUFFY WON ON POINTS.

Chicago Lightweight Got Decision Over Mathews at America Club.

CHICAGO, March 11.—Conceding several pounds in weight, Martin Duffy, the Chicago lightweight, defeated Matty Mathews, the Brooklyn welterweight, in a six-round contest at the America Club.

The fight was fast from the start and Duffy had all the best of the cleverness.

Campbell Defeated Brock.

In the class "A" three-cushion tournament at the Grand Monday night, Dr. W. O. Campbell defeated Brock by a score of 50 to 43. It was a tame game. Peterson and Hutchings will play Tuesday night. The score:

Campbell—Total, 50; high run, 4; average, .42.

Brock—Total, 43; high run, 2; average, .37.

POOL CHAMPIONS BEGIN TOURNEY

Grant Eby and H. P. Stofft Won Opening Games at Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The opening games of the world's championship professional pool tournament were played at the Montauk Billiard Hall, Brooklyn, last night, H. P. Stofft, of Cleveland, O., winning from Charles Weston, of Wyoming, by a top-heavy score of 125 to 59. The second match was between Grant Eby, of New York, and Irving Long; Eby winning, 125 to 93.

The tournament will be continued through the week, two games being played each night and two Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

The contestants in the race now number but nine, the remainder having been forced out by the reputations of the leading players.

Following is the entry list as it is now sifted down:

William H. Clearwater, Elwood, Pa.; Jerome R. Keogh, Buffalo, N. Y.; William E. McCune, Boston, Mass., and Patrick H. Walsh, Bronx, New York, all former champions; H. P. Stofft, Cleveland, O., champion of the Middle West; Charles Weston, Wyoming, cowboy expert player and champion of the West; Grant H. Eby, former champion, and William Wenrick, well known in Broadway rooms, and Irving Long, Nashville, Tenn., champion of the South. This list represents all sections of the country and is said by experts to be the fastest and strongest aggregation of players ever gathered for such an event.

The winner of the tournament will be presented with a diamond and gold emblem representing the world's championship, and Mr. Green, the promoter of the enterprise, will give $400 in cash prizes.

This is the first professional pool tournament ever given in Brooklyn, and eight years have elapsed since a similar affair occurred in New York.

MONEY WANTED FOR OLYMPIAN GAMES

Congress Will Be Asked $500,000 for International Sports.

CHICAGO, March 11.—B. J. Rosenthal, chairman of the finance committee of the Olympian games, it was announced today, will leave for New York and Washington Wednesday to interest easterners in the big sports scheduled for 1904. While in the East Mr. Rosenthal will take the first steps toward asking Congress for a $500,000 appropriation for the Olympian games. He will announce at that time that every dollar Chicago gives the promoters will ask the government to duplicate.

"We are going to make the games greater than we thought at first," said Mr. Rosenthal today. "We anticipate no trouble in getting an appropriation from Congress. Already we have had letters from eastern men of money offering to subscribe toward the stock. We are going to have a real international exposition of the physical development of men."

BREMENS DEFEAT EAGLES.

Match on Pueser's Alleys Was Close and Well Contested.

Bremens and Eagles of Pueser's League had a cocked hat contest on Pueser's alleys Monday. It was a close game, the Bremens wining the odd game. Pueser and McSods of the winners tied for first place, while Daugherty topped the losers. Summaries:

JEFFRIES NOW ON THE COAST

Thinks Choice of Fight Location Is Between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 11.—Champion James J. Jeffries has arrived in Los Angeles and will spend several days here visiting his mother. He has entirely recovered from the cold he contracted in New York. The champion has been in consultation with the officials of the Century Athletic Club, who have made an offer of $20,000 for the coming battle for the championship. He thinks the choice of a meeting place lies between this city and San Francisco. He will be present in the latter city when bids are opened next Saturday.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

(Cured Without Mercury or Mineral Mixtures.)

The man whose system is polluted with blood poison (and it may have been contracted or inherited) was for a long time considered to have a dark future, for among those physicians who had not given the subject constant study and research this disease was considered incurable. I had an abiding belief that science was able to provide a cure, however, and after years of experience with the disease, devoted to its close study, my efforts were rewarded with success, and some of the worst cases on record have yielded to my original method of treatment. If you have been dosed on drastic drugs, you will immediately see the superiority of my treatment, for I do not saturate the system with potash and mercury, the effects of which are as damaging to the system as the disease itself. My treatment promptly dispels all outward signs of the disease, and gradually cleanses the blood of the last vestige of taint, the cure is permanent, and the disease is not constantly breaking out again.

"BIG JACK" STEVENS IS FOUND GUILTY

MUST GO TO CHESTER FOR STOCK YARDS ROBBERY.

MYERS AND SAVIGNAC ACQUITTED

Savignac's Alibi Was Based on the Testimony of Salisbury, Mo., Citizens of Repute.

The trial of Charles Myers, Sylvester Savignac and "Big Jack" Stevens, the three men charged with blowing the safe of the National Stockyards at East St. Louis, was concluded in the circuit court at Belleville at midnight. It did not take the jury long to reach a verdict. At 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning they sent word to Judge Schaefer that they were ready to come into court. They were brought in and their verdict was read.

Myers and Savignac were acquitted. Stevens was found guilty.

Under the indeterminate sentence law in Illinois Stevens will serve a term of from five to twenty years in Chester penitentiary.

The verdict was what was expected. Savignac established a perfect alibi. A number of the best people of Salisbury, Mo., testified that he was at that place the night the safe was blown.

No attempt was made to establish an alibi for Stevens. There was only his own word that he was in his room the night of the crime. His penitentiary record was greatly against him. He was only released from Chester a few months ago.

The wives of Savignac and Myers were in court when the verdict was given, as they have been throughout the trial. They gave expression to their delight, and each of them thanked the members of the jury.

No friend of Stevens had been in evidence during the trial except Bobby Carroll, of St. Louis, and he was not there when the verdict was given.

The case was worked up by the Furlongs. Thomas Furlong and Operative McCarthy were present throughout the trial and greatly assisted State's Attorney Farmer by their suggestions. Mr. Farmer was assisted by Attorney August Barthel. The men were defended by Attorneys Webb & Webb and John A. Gernez. The arguments lasted several hours and were not concluded until midnight.

State's Attorney Farmer virtually conceded in his argument that there was no case against Savignac, and at the conclusion shook hands with him and told him he did not think he was guilty.

GREAT ROAD BUILDER HONORED

Centerville Station Re-Elects Salumier Highway Commissioner.

Centreville Station township delegates held a convention in Winstanley Park Saturday night.

Louis S. Salumier, who has served for six years as highway commissioner, was given a unanimous renomination.

When he came into office Centreville Station roads were in a bad condition. There were one or two good roads, while the others were like extra wide cow paths. Today there are many miles of rock roads and many altogether new roads that have been constructed since his election. He will be opposed by George Reinhardt.

The other candidates nominated at the convention were: Raymond Tayr, supervisor; Albert Jerome, collector, and C. R. Boyer, assessor.

GRANITE CITY NEWS.

The Hager steel and rolling mill will begin operations next week with a force of 250 men. The office building will be completed by that time.

The whistle of the American Car and Foundry Works gave a fire alarm and was taken up by other factories about 8 o'clock Monday night. On investigation a blaze was discovered in a rubbish pile on the side of the Merchants' Terminal tracks, between Madison and Granite City. A pedestrian had carelessly dropped a lighted cigarette into the pile. The affair created considerable excitement for a while.

William Collier has announced his candidacy for the office of collector of Venice Township. Mr. Collier is at present city treasurer of Granite City.

It it probably four township tickets will be placed in the field for election April 1. Considerable interest is being manifested in the election.

Miss Rea Carthage of De Sota is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Nora Crawford of this city.

A force of surveyors has been engaged for several days in marking out the site for the new steel foundry, at the intersection of the Wabash and Merchants' Terminal tracks.

Big preparations are being made by the members of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, for their annual ball, St. Patrick's evening, March 17.

The management of the National Enameling and Stamping Co.'s rolling mill is making preparations for the enlargement of that plant. Washington avenue has been condemned and vacated from Sixteenth to Nineteenth street. The Universal mill will be continued and a large shipping room will be constructed. The new improvements will give employment to 500 more men.

The county seat committee is holding weekly meetings to further promote plans for the removing of the courthouse from Edwardsville to Granite City. The body is now awaiting the return of ex-Congressman F. G. Niedringhaus, who is on a business mission in New York City.

Mrs. Charles Knapp returned Monday evening to her home in Shelbyville, after a week's visit with relatives.

ALTON NEWS.

William Hayes, a laborer at the Illinois Glass Works, has received word that he is heir to $2800, left by his grandmother, in Ohio. Hayes was for several months a cook in a restaurant in Alton, and married an Alton girl. He will go back to his old home in Ohio.

Union revival meetings will be held by the Congregational, Presbyterian, Cumberland Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist churches. The meeting is to commence May 18 and continue two weeks. A large tent will be pitched. Rev. H. W. Horton, an evangelist, will be the speaker.

The plans for the new high school building in Alton arrived yesterday, and the advertisements for the work will be published. The building, with its fixtures, is to cost $50,000.

There will be two candidates for the office of town clerk at the spring election. Patrick Ward, the present incumbent, will be a candidate, and Joe Giles, editor of the Labor Advocate, will try for the office.

The young ladies of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church of Alton are going to hold a missionary day in their church, Thursday afternoon. A room in the church will be decorated in Indian colors, and with many Indian curios. In the evening lectures will be given by Mrs. E. M. Caldwell, for many years a missionary among the Indians in Utah, and by Mrs. Charles Upcraft, for years a missionary in China, and there during the Boxer uprising. A supper will be served.

Miss Mary Helen Ferguson died at her home on Henry street, Monday afternoon, after a long illness. Miss Ferguson was 69 years of age. The funeral will take place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, from the home, and will be private.

Mrs. Barbara Ginsler, aged 65 years, died at her home on First street, Alton, Monday afternoon. The funeral is to be held Wednesday morning.

The Madison County executive committee met in Edwardsville today to make arrangements for and select a date for the Madison County Republican convention.

A number of the officers of Shurtleff College went to St. Louis today to attend the funeral of the late Dr. I. D. Foulon, who was president of the Shurtleff College Alumni Association.

High School Athletes to Act.

The East St. Louis High School Athletic Clubs will give an entertainment in the auditorium Friday evening.

The first part of the program will be as follows: Recitation, Miss Clara Meints; piano solo, Miss Ada Hendricks; vocal solo, Harry Balfour; violin solo, Samuel Niederberg; selection, High School Glee Club; duet, Miss Nellie Flannigan and Robert S. Johnson.

The second part will be a two-act comedy, "The Black Diamond," the characters of which will be represented by Misses Phebe Bishop, Lulu Parker, Fredericka Scherrer, Leonora Lalumier, Louise Tabb and Nathanial Leivy, Arthur Freels and Stookey Carr.

Miss Lulu Parker, who appears as Hulda, the Black Diamond, is one of the best players on the basket ball team as is Miss Phebe Bishop, who takes the part of Emily.

Funds received from the entertainment will be used in buying necessary outfits for the athletic teams of the school.

GOOD TRADING IN STREET RAILWAYS

PREFERRED AND TRANSIT UP

Statement of Street Railway Company Shows a Deficit of Over $500,000 for Past Year.

St. Louis Street Railway stock received the most attention at the morning session of the local stock exchange Tuesday. A majority of the speculators were inclined to view as bullish the annual statement of the road. The statement showed gross earnings for the past year of $5,777,597 and net earnings of $2,065,198. The statement showed a deficit of $525,630. The previous year, when the road had a big strike, the deficit was a little over $1,500,000. So the statement of the past year would indicate that the road had earned near $1,000,000 more than the previous year. The operating expenses were 63.91 per cent of the gross receipts.

There were some traders who looked upon the statement as bearish and they had Transit and United Railways preferred for sale. But the demand was very good and prices worked higher from the opening closing at the top.

For a few minutes after the opening trading was very heavy in street railway issues. Transit opened at $27, 12½c above the close Monday. Then 200 shares sold at $28 and the price dropped back to $27.75. Near the close there was a rally to $28 at which price 200 shares changed hands.

United Railways preferred opened with a gain of 50c at $83.50 and sold gradually up to $84 which was bid at the close of the session, a gain of $1 per share.

There was very little change in United Railway 4s. The first sale was at $88.25 but the market dropped back to $88.12½, unchanged from Monday.

Laclede Gas was in good demand, 50 shares selling at $88, an advance of 50c per share.

ST. LOUIS MONEY MARKET.

Rates Higher on an Increased Demand From All Lines of Business.

The St. Louis money market is very strong. Banks and trust companies report deposits larger than usual. There is a strong demand for money. This borrowing is not limited to any special line of business. Many banks report applications for money from the South, especially Texas and Arkansas points. This inquiry is made earlier than usual. A reason given for the strong inquiry for money locally was that collections by big mercantile houses were not good, owing to the drouth last summer, forcing the borrowing of money. Money rates, in consequence of the strong demand, are stiffer. The advance in rates at New York has had much to do with strengthening the St. Louis market. Rates range from 4½ to 7 per cent.

Clearances were quite large today, being $8,497,276, with balances of $1,255,529.

STOCK MARKET IS FIRMER

Strenuous Support Was Given on the London Board, With Good Effect in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The support extended to American stocks in the London market had a strengthening effect on the local dealings at the opening and there was no trace of yesterday's late selling movement. International stocks showed fractional improvements, particularly Pennsylvania and St. Paul. Colorado & Southern and Manhattan were pushed up sharply but Reading showed heaviness on apprehension regarding the labor outlook. The general market was quite active and decidedly firm.

A BETTER TONE TO LOCAL MARKETS

GOVERNMENT REPORT THE CHIEF INFLUENCE.

ALL GRAINS OPENED HIGHER

Government Report Bearish on Wheat, but Considered Bullish on Corn and Oats, Which Showed Most Strength.

The government report on wheat issued late yesterday was not considered bullish and based upon the estimates of traders the percentage in farmers' hands on a crop of over 660,000,000 bu the farm reserves would amount to 156,000,000 bu. There was selling on this and reported rains in the southwest. The crop movement was light, and arrivals here amounting to 35,824 bu, against 48,810 a year ago, of which 1132 sacks and 34 cars were local and three cars through, compared with 364 sacks and 58 cars local and two cars through a year ago.

Corn and oats were both better at the outset, as the government report was looked upon as being very bullish, the farm reserves of the former being estimated at 394,000,000 bu and of the latter 166,000,000 bu. Corn receipts today were 61,240 bu, compared with 132,200 bu a year ago, of which 16 sacks and 40 cars were local and 28 cars through. Receipts of oats were 74,400 bu, compared with 64,800 bu a year ago, of which 30 sacks and 32 cars were local and 23 cars through. On the strength of the above report and good demand, corn opened up higher, at 62¼c for May and July, the former selling off to 61¾c and back to 62½c in a short time and then advancing to 62¼@62⅝c, July, which sold off to 62⅛c, moving up to 62¼c.

Oats were quiet, but in sympathy with corn and opened up ¼c higher for the May option, at 44c, July being quoted at 35½c, a shade off from yesterday's close.

SAFE!

Absolute security in an investment is the first thing to be considered. In the whole range of oil stocks, outside the Standard Oil, there is not one that fulfils this condition better than the Eastern Consolidated Oil Co.

In offering the balance of the allotment at the original price—

25c. A SHARE,

Par Value $1.00,

We feel that we are giving our clients a wonderful opportunity. This stock now pays dividends on the investment of

2% Monthly,

6 per cent quarterly, or 24 per cent yearly. When the price advances to 50c a share, as it will now in a short time, every dollar put in before the rise will have double its present earning power in dividends.

Eastern Consolidated Oil Stock

Is Safe because it is in the hands of the most conservative men of the East—men who have inquired carefully into its prospects before identifying themselves with it, and every man connected with the board of directors has personally been on the properties.

Is Secure because on its 21,000 of rich oil holdings it already has over 80 oil wells in active operation, and the actual sale of oil from these wells to the Standard Oil Co. more than pays the dividends as advertised and operating expenses besides. This is very different from the ordinary oil stock company that has nothing but promises and prospects instead of wells, oil and dividends.

Is Profitable because of the already large earning power of the stock, and the flattering prospects backed by present prosperity. $100 invested earns $24 a year in dividends NOW. Invest $100 now, and when the price goes to 50c it will pay $48 a year dividends.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Each time the United States Government has officially tested the baking powders the report has shown Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to be of superlative leavening strength, free from alum, absolutely pure and wholesome.

This is gratifying, for Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is depended upon by millions of people to raise their daily bread.

NOTE.—These Government inquiries also developed the fact that there are many mixtures upon the market made in imitation of baking powder, but containing alum or other caustic acid, whose use in food is dangerous.

WEBSTER VOTES FOR WATER.

Citizens of Suburb Ratified Contract for Supply.

Webster Groves went nearly four to one for the proposed Missouri river water supply at the special election held Monday. The vote was 523 for ratifying the contract made by the mayor and aldermen with the Missouri Water, Light and Power Co., and 148 against it. A two-thirds vote was necessary to carry the proposition.

The company recently made a contract with Kirkwood, and will soon commence work on its mains, which are to run from the Missouri river, near Creve Coeur Lake, to Webster Groves, through Kirkwood.

CITY NEWS.

Such a day as yesterday, when the sap climbs the trees, and the birds begin to chirp, brings the women out in force to look up their own spring adornments. Their principal gathering place, of course, is the CRAWFORD Store, where the goods are, and in full assortment, too; and where the prices are always a good many points less than elsewhere!! Did you note the crowds of fair women there yesterday?

College Fund Benefit.—A social and entertainment for the benefit of the fund for the endowment of the lady principal's chair at Drury College, Springfield, Mo., will be held Tuesday night by the Congregational churches of the city at Pilgrim Church, Washington and Ewing avenues.

STRIKES LEAVE 700 MEN IDLE

Efforts to Settle Three Labor Controversies Have Thus Far Been Without Success.

Attempts to settle the three strikes now in progress in St. Louis, involving more than 700 men, have thus far been unsuccessful.

A committee representing the striking employes of the Imperial Electric Co., accompanied by David Kreyling of the Central Trades and Labor Union, visited Supt. Way of the Imperial Co. Monday, and asked that non-union workmen, whose employment had occasioned the strike, be discharged. Mr. Way refused to consider such a proposal.

The four large trunk and bag factories which are affected by the strike of union trunkmakers are still practically closed. This strike includes 400 workers.

The 280 quarry workers who struck March 1 have come to no agreement with their employers. Their demand is for a readjustment of the schedule of wages and hours.

John E. Barrow Is Dead.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 11.—John E. Barrow, aged 80 years, is dead. His body has been taken to St. Joseph, Mo., for burial. His family is well known in Missouri and at Nashville, Tenn.

"LA BOHEME" WELL DONE AT CENTURY

BY THE CASTLE SQUARE COMPANY

COLUMBIA OFFERS A FINE BILL

MRS. ALFRED KELCY, COLUMBIA. MAYME MAYO, GRAND.

An artistic and delightful presentation of "La Boheme" was that given by the Castle Square Opera Company at the Century last evening, and while the attendance was not quite up to that on several nights last week it was large enough to indicate considerable interest in Puccini's eccentric work.

"La Boheme" is not an opera that appeals to the masses for several reasons. The first and foremost is that it is too close to poverty, and as a result is not sufficiently spectacular. The second is that the music is not of a kind to strike the popular fancy, so that the audiences at any presentation of "La Boheme" will always be composed largely of students rather than those seeking purely entertainment.

"La Boheme" has been done several times in St. Louis within a comparatively short time, and the presentation last evening was certainly better than any heretofore given. The male four sung by Miro Delamotta, Winfred Goff, E. A. Clark and Francis J. Boyle were unusually effective. They sang and acted their respective roles with force and spirit and were the recipients of unstinted applause. In fact the entire company seemed imbued with extreme ambition and the opera went with a snap and precision that must have done the director's heart good.

Gertrude Rennyson sang Mimi and Josephine Ludwig sang Musetta. Miss Rennyson was in excellent voice and gave a most satisfying rendition of every bit of the music that fell to her. Miss Ludwig was also heard to advantage and again demonstrated that she has made decided improvement as an actress since she was first seen here. She was given good support and encouragement by the audience.

Tonight "Aida" will again be sung and again at the matinee tomorrow. "La Boheme" will be repeated Wednesday night.

Lovers of the highest class of piano music are looking forward to the coming of Ignace Jan Paderewski to the Odeon next Saturday afternoon when "still the greatest pianist in the world" is to present, among a number of other selections, Robert Schumann's famous "Carnaval." The last time this fine composition was adequately given here was at the Moriz Rosenthal recital. It will be interesting to compare the methods of the two leading pianists in the world in the treatment of a composition that sooner or later finds its way into all standard piano recital programs. The official Paderewski program, in detail, is as follows:

Sonata quasi ma Fantasia Op. No. 2..Beethoven
Adagio Sostenuto.
Allegretto.
Presto Agitato.
Three Songs Without Words.....Mendelssohn
No. 8, Op. 19.
No. 1, Op. 62.
Spinnerlied.
Carnaval .....Schumann
Nocturne, G Major.....Chopin
Scherzo, B Minor.....Chopin
Valse, Op. 34.....Chopin
Two Chants, Polonais.....Chopin-Liszt
Etude de Concert.....Liszt
Polonais .....Liszt

Guiseppi Creatore and Ellery's Royal Italian Band will be here next Sunday night for a week's stay at the Odeon, giving matinees only on Wednesday and Saturday of the coming week.

Harry Gilfoil, the comedian and mimic, plays the eccentric character part of Uncle Jasper Pennyfeather, an inventor, with Klaw & Erlanger's Troubadours in Harry B. Smith's new musical comedy, "The Liberty Belles." This production, which has proved one of the greatest hits in New York the present season, is booked for early presentation at the Olympic. Mr. Gilfoil was long identified with the Hoyt farces and played prominent roles in several of this noted farceur's comedies. The character of Uncle Jasper Pennyfeather is better suited to his abilities than any in which he has ever been seen. All his specialties and imitations are presented in such a clever way as to further the telling of the story, thereby adding to their interest. Uncle Jasper Pennyfeather in the plot of the piece is the husband of Mrs. Dr. Prowl, the head of a ladies' seminary, whom he deserted years before to go to Africa to study the language of monkeys. He is also the uncle of Dorothy Grey, the part played by Sandol Milliken.

George H. Brennan has arranged for a spring tour of Kathryn Kidder in a revival of the "Country Girl." David Garrick's version of the Wycherly comedy will be used. Negotiations are in progress with several actors of prominence to support Miss Kidder. The tour will commence in April and will include only the important cities of the country.

The versatility of Johnstone Bennett was probably never shown to better advantage than in her protean sketch, "A Quiet Evening at Home," in which she is assisted by Tony Williams. In quick succession she assumes the character of Mrs. Jack Hereford, the wife; Mattie Magin, daughter of the washerwoman; Roxana Perkins, a rural maid, eager for a job; Tony Yuengling, a young man about town; Eva Nessant, a dowdy soubrette—a most excellent characterization—and finally, Mrs. Jack Hereford again. Miss Bennett's audiences give their unhesitating approval of her work.

Other particular favorites on the bill are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kelcy, in a clever Latin quarter farce; Gus Williams, German dialect comedian; Crawford and Stanley, "The Tramp and the Dude;" Maud Huth, comedienne; Bertie Fowler, mimic; Eddie Girard and Jessie Gardner, "The Soubrette and the Cop."

Others are Mlle. Asita, exceptional ballet dancer, assisted by Little Sidney; three musical Westons; Touhey and Lacey, comedy sketch; Carnivalli, juggler; Plamondon and Amondon, revolving ladder act.

The biograph has a lot of new pictures this week, but above all the Columbia has a gorgeous new set of scenery, which will be used particularly as a background to fancy dancing and other light acts. It embodies a riot of pink nymphs and red roses and makes a very pleasing picture. The audience murmured its distinct approval when it was first shown.

"Babs the Impossible" is being dramatized for a New York manager, and it is said that May Buckley has been selected to play the title role. Miss Buckley is a very clever and pretty young actress, whose charm added much to John Drew's performances when she was a member of his company. Her work in "The First Born," "Hearts Are Trumps," "Caleb West" and "The Price of Peace" was creditable in the highest degree.

Luncheon, Four Courses, 25c, 11 to 3, The Breitling, 411 N. Broadway, upstairs.

SMOKE PROSECUTIONS SOON

Citizen's Abatement Association Will Urge Action in Court After April 1.

Prosecution of boiler owners who fail to comply with the smoke abatement law by April 1 will be urged by the Citizens' Smoke Abatement Association, which is preparing to hold a series of public meetings for the purpose of arousing interest in the purposes of the organization.

The Wednesday Club, composed of ladies, has been asked to aid in the arrangements for the meetings to be held in the residence districts, and the members of the club have expressed willingness to help in the movement.

In the downtown section meetings will be arranged by the Manufacturers' Association and other organizations. Secretary Eugene McQuillin says that the smoke inspector will have completed his final round of manufacturing establishments by the end of the month, and that no excuse for delay in prosecutions will then remain. Dan C. Nugent, president of the association, now out of the city, is expected to return before April 1.

ALFRED BOOLE IS DEAD.

Was Widely Known Among Horse and Dog Fanciers.

PHENIX, Ariz., March 11.—Alfred Boole of East Orange, N. J., is dead of consumption after four months' residence in Phenix. He was 52 years of age, a well-known manufacturer of tiling and son-in-law of P. M. Shepard, chairman of the executive board of the rubber combination. He was well known in the sporting world as the owner of fine horses and valuable kennels.

For the Little Ones

Many analyses of cheap cough mixtures and cough and throat lozenges have clearly proven that a large proportion of them contain opiates.

The temporary relief which these cheap medicines often give in coughs and colds, especially with the little children, is because the opiate, by destroying the nerve sensation, the irritation in the throat, which causes the cough, is temporarily removed, but the real cause of the cold is not in any way removed by the opiate and will promptly return.

The best thing to use to remove the catarrhal secretion which causes the cold, the hoarseness and irritating cough, is a new preparation composed of antiseptics like Eucalyptol, Red Gum of Eucalyptus tree, Blood Root, etc., under name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, which contain no opiate, cocaine or poisonous drug of any sort.

A mother living in Charleston, Mass., the happy possessor of four children, writes: "Every fall and winter I have laid in a stock of cough medicines, croup mixtures, and throat remedies for my little children, for some show or other they never seemed to be free from colds, croup or sore throat.

"This fall I made a change in the usual program. I had myself been cured of an obstinate catarrh, from which I had suffered for years, by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and as they were pleasant to take I determined to try them with my children. Our family physician told me he knew them to be perfectly safe and nothing better could be taken. So I gave them to the children and have continued to do so ever since, whenever there is the least sign of croup or sore throat, and I no longer dread the approach of cold weather as I once did.

"Stuart's Catarrh Tablets not only cured me of chronic nasal and throat catarrh, but they have saved me many an anxious night with my little ones."

Mr. A. R. Fernbank of Columbus, Ohio, says: "I suffered so many winters from Catarrh that I took it as a matter of course, and that nothing would cure it except a change of climate, which my business affairs would not permit me to take.

"My nostrils were almost always clogged up, and I had to breathe through the mouth, causing an inflamed, irritated throat. The thought of eating breakfast often nauseated me and the catarrh gradually getting into my stomach, took away my appetite and digestion.

"My druggist advised me to try a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because he said he had so many customers who had been cured of catarrh by the use of these tablets, and he felt he could honestly recommend them. I took his advice and used several boxes with results that surprised and delighted me.

"I always keep a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in the house and the whole family use them freely on the first appearance of a cough or cold in the head.

"With our children we think there is nothing so safe and reliable as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets to ward off croup and colds, and with older people I have known of cases where the hearing had been seriously impaired by chronic catarrh cured entirely by this new remedy."

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves, and washes for catarrh and have found how useless they are, will be agreeably surprised at the results following the use of a pleasant internal remedy in tablet form. Druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Tablets, which they sell at 50 cents per package, is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.
